Working Title Films Nathan Townsend, 2021-04-28 Working Title Films is arguably the most important production company in the history of British cinema This wide ranging book charts the creative and commercial history of Working Title from its origins as an independent in the 1980s to its integration into PolyGram Filmed Entertainment in the 1990s and to its current status as a subsidiary of Universal since the 2000s In doing so the relationship between the film industries and cultures of Britain and Hollywood is examined through a consideration of the industrial structures processes and practices which have defined the operation of the company Moreover it considers the ways in which these industrial transitions have produced distinct versions of Britain and Britishness onscreen ranging from My Beautiful Laundrette and Wish You Were Here to Four Weddings and a Funeral and Notting Hill and from Johnny English and Nanny McPhee to The Theory of Everything and Yesterday Drawing on over 30 interviews with key personnel from Working Title PolyGram Filmed Entertainment and Universal the author examines not only how this remarkable company has evolved but also why it has evolved in the way that it has by situating its history within the ever changing landscapes of the British and Hollywood film industries

Monsters in the Closet Harry M. Benshoff, 1997 A history of the horror film that explores the genre s relationship to the history of homosexuality in America The horror film has offered a number of medical psychological and social models of homosexuality Examining not only the films themselves but also other related cultural products Harry Benshoff defines these models and their implications We see familiar constructions of gays and lesbians pass before our eyes homosexuality as a treatable disease as a threat to national security as a mark of the pariah Monsters in the Closet challenges us to more closely examine what we see 1997, Il cinema italiano Choice ,2000 Trends in Contemporary Italian Narrative, 1980-2007 Gillian Ania,Ann Caesar,2007 The new Italian narrative TM that began to be spoken about in the 1980s was not associated with a single writer or movement but with an eclectic and varied production The eight essays that make up this volume set out to give a flavour of the breadth and range of recent trends and developments The collection opens with two essays on crime fiction In the first Luca Somigli examines novels dealing with topical issues or recent history and which reveal a strong indigenous and regional tradition while in the second Nicoletta McGowan discusses the particular case of a noir by Claudia Salvatori They are followed by essays on two of Italy TM s best known contemporary writers Marina Spunta TM s essay explores the representation of space place and landscape in the work of Gianni Celati and photographer Luigi Ghirri while Darrell O TM Connell analyses the fiction of Vincenzo Consolo and his struggle to find a means of representing an ethical stance within fiction Two essays then examine the role of the anthology for young writers Charlotte Ross and Derek Duncan in the context of lesbian and gay writing looking at identity politics and the problematics of categorization Monica Jansen and Inge Lanslots in that of the oeYoung Cannibals and their often unsettling non literary language and orientation towards cinema pop music and slang The penultimate essay by Jennifer Burns discusses the literature of migrants to Italy focusing on questions of identity memory mobility and language while the final contribution by Gillian Ania is a study of apocalypse and dystopia in contemporary writing looking at novels by Vassalli Capriolo Avoledo and Pispisa This volume examines Italian narrative from the 1980s to the present from the original viewpoint of genres categories trends rather than author based analyses It highlights the innovations of the last twenty years incorporating into the various themes well known writers like Consolo Celati and Vassalli with relative newcomers like Avoledo and Pispisa The contributors to the volume academics from the UK Ireland Canada Belgium cover a wide range of themes which have come to the fore during this period ranging from detective stories both the giallo and the noir to lesbian and gay writing to immigration literature in Italian to the study of apocalypse and dystopia The themes are contextualized in the socio political and cultural changes taking place in Italy and parallel to this the temporal moments of the narratives are in turn related to their historical realities This is a richly woven account which presents post 80s Italian narrative from a new and stimulating angle in eight lucid and informative essays which will be welcomed by all those interested in contemporary fiction in its cultural context Professor Anna Laura Lepschy Department of Italian University College London Goya, Redon, Ensor Herwig Todts,Koninklijk Museum voor Schone Kunsten (Belgium),2009 In a nutshell An interesting selection of the work of three peculiar artists and pioneers of modern art There is a part of human nature that has always been fascinated by the

grotesque the feeling of not wanting to look yet being unable to look away is a feeling that has been inspired in us all at one point or another Grotesque depictions play an important role in the works of Francisco Goya 1746 1828 Odilon Redon 1840 1916 and James Ensor 1860 1949 These three artists use grotesque motifs in a very different manner the classical ideas of Goya clearly differ from Redon's symbolism or Ensor's hilarious and cynical mockery This book presents a rare series of sketches by Goya grotesque drawings by Redon and a selection of Ensor's top paintings from museums all over the world and both challenges and confirms the various aesthetic notions of the grotesque The official catalogue for the exhibition in the Royal Museum for Fine Arts in Antwerp March June 2009 ILLUSTRATIONS 110 colour 110 b w illustrations Studio International ,1964 American Sportswear & Knitting Times ,1997 Cyberpunk and Cyberculture Dani Cavallaro,2000 This text explores and analyses the work of a wide range of writers setting their work in the context of science fiction other literary genres genre cinema and contemporary work on the culture of technology International Books in Print ,1986 The Journal of English and Germanic Philology ,1947 The Encyclopedia of Science Fiction Peter Nicholls,1979 Representing Ireland Frank Beardow,Alison O'Malley-Younger,2005 The Oxford Encyclopedia of Children's Literature: Smad-Zwer, index Jack Zipes,2006 For much of its history children's literature has been overlooked or looked down on by scholars But in recent years children's literature has assumed greater importance as literary critics psychologists anthropologists and historians have begun to discover what children and parents have known for centuries that this is a literature of extraordinary richness depth and delight The Encyclopedia captures and elucidates this richness in four volumes and 3 200 signed entries It offers comprehensive coverage of children's literature from medieval chapbooks of moral instruction for children to J K Rowling's immensely popular Harry Potter books Unlike other references the Encyclopedia not only documents but also interprets every work major and minor that has played a role in the history of children's literature in the world General essays illuminate prominent trends themes genres and the traditions of children's literature in many countries In addition the Encyclopedia provides biographies of important writers as well as extensive coverage of illustrators with numerous examples of their work Sociocultural developments such as the impact of toys films animation the Internet literacy libraries and librarians censorship the multicultural expansion of the field and other issues related to the appreciation and dissemination of children's literature are also addressed While the Encyclopedia concentrates on the tradition known best by its readership it also covers the international development of children's literature and offers an unprecedented treatment of works from Australia Canada New Zealand India Pakistan African countries and other nations Its over 800 distinguished contributors come from around the world and include such renowned scholars and writers as Gillian Avery Peter Hunt Klaus Doderer Hansa Heino Ewers Jean Perrot Denise Escarpit Brian Alderson and Betsy Gould Hearne A Z organization accessible writing plentiful illustrations cross references bibliographies a comprehensive index and a systematic outline make the Encyclopedia an invaluable and easy to use research reference
