Building Bridges between Cultures in Ian McDonald's Science Fiction Jerome Winter, 2025-09-18 This book is a career long retrospective of the Irish writer Ian McDonald and his complex compelling representation of our contemporary global condition Ian McDonald is a celebrated writer within the science fiction community whose rich and urgent body of works span over a quarter of a century The author claims McDonald's work functions as vital troubling allegories which both refuse the Orientalist euphemizing of colonial atrocities while still at the same time envisioning a transformative global alterity seeking an ethical and political embrace of systematically silenced subaltern voices in the neoliberal world system The book follows McDonald as the globe trotting writer travels from Ireland to Kenya to India to Brazil to Turkey to a proliferating multiverse and beyond Along the way the author analyzes McDonald's science fiction as a salient contribution to the flourishing cosmopolitan literature of postcolonial developing nations at the crossroads of the global imaginary

The Cambridge Companion to American Science Fiction Gerry Canavan, Eric Carl Link, 2015-01-26 The Cambridge Companion to American Science Fiction explores the relationship between the ideas and themes of American science fiction and their roots in the American cultural experience Science fiction in America has long served to reflect the country's hopes desires ambitions and fears The ideas and conventions associated with science fiction are pervasive throughout American film and television comics and visual arts games and gaming and fandom as well as across the culture writ large Through essays that address not only the history of science fiction in America but also the influence and significance of American science fiction throughout media and fan culture this companion serves as a key resource for scholars teachers students and fans of science fiction

Mediated Terrorism in the 21st Century Elena Caoduro, Karen Randell, Karen A. Ritzenhoff, 2021-06-19 Mediated Terrorism in the 21st Century offers new interpretations of figures emerging from representations of terrorism and counterterrorism the male hero female agent religious leader victim perpetrator and survivor This collection of essays by a broad array of international scholars reflects the altered image making processes that have developed from George W Bush's war on terror Building on current literature on media and terrorism

this volume analyzes the most recent technological developments that have impacted the way we experience terrorism online videos social media cartoons media feeds and drones The authors address different time periods different terrorist groups and explore the way filmmakers and television producers from the USA Europe South Africa and the Middle East are documenting modern wars in popular culture International Companion Encyclopedia of Children's Literature Peter Hunt,2004-08-02 Children s publishing is a huge international industry and there is ever growing interest from researchers and students in the genre as cultural object of study and tool for education and socialization Literature of the World William Lee Richardson,Jesse Myron Owen,1922 Science Fiction ,2007 Encyclopedia of the Anthropocene ,2017-11-27 Encyclopedia of the Anthropocene Five Volume Set presents a currency based global synthesis cataloguing the impact of humanity s global ecological footprint Covering a multitude of aspects related to Climate Change Biodiversity Contaminants Geological Energy and Ethics leading scientists provide foundational essays that enable researchers to define and scrutinize information ideas relationships meanings and ideas within the Anthropocene concept Questions widely debated among scientists humanists conservationists politicians and others are included providing discussion on when the Anthropocene began what to call it whether it should be considered an official geological epoch whether it can be contained in time and how it will affect future generations Although the idea that humanity has driven the planet into a new geological epoch has been around since the dawn of the 20th century the term Anthropocene was only first used by ecologist Eugene Stoermer in the 1980s and hence popularized in its current meaning by atmospheric chemist Paul Crutzen in 2000 Presents comprehensive and systematic coverage of topics related to the Anthropocene with a focus on the Geosciences and Environmental science Includes point counterpoint articles debating key aspects of the Anthropocene giving users an even handed navigation of this complex area Provides historic seminal papers and essays from leading scientists and philosophers who demonstrate changes in the Anthropocene concept over time The Reflective Age Zachary Griffith,2025-12-09 At the end of history nothing ever really ends Though characterized on one hand by sociopolitical and economic stasis stagnation and decline twenty first century American culture has also been marked by the constant ebb and flow of preexisting artifacts and styles so that when one fades out of fashion it is always replaced by another reiteration Change on the cultural level has accelerated at an unprecedented rate and old things are constantly returning anew The present in other words promotes the feeling that nothing is changing and simultaneously everything is In the midst of this paradoxical sense of constant flux and grinding stagnation underwritten by the notion that there is no alternative to the malaise of the present the nostalgic past emerges as the only viable refuge The Reflective Age investigates how nostalgic American media of the 2010s and early 2020s reflects and contributes to these conditions showing how the films TV shows music and literature of the period illustrate a radical shift in both the role that nostalgia plays in the American cultural and political landscape as well as in nostalgia itself Catalogue of Books Exclusive of Prose Fiction in the Central Lending
