

THE ENTREPRENEUR'S GUIDE TO PRODUCTIVITY

A 5-STEP DAY PLANNER

Focus on "output" rather than "activity" or "time".
You can check the box, but measure the results.
You only measure progress when you move to goals,
prioritize, communicate priorities, and continue to
prioritize, communicate priorities, and continue to do... that's the most you'll feel like doing day-to-day.

You can't do it all, but you can do more. You can't do it all, but you can do more.

1. Set your goals. You can't measure progress
without goals. Set them, write them down, prioritize them, and communicate them
to your team.
2. Communicate priorities. You can't measure progress without priorities. Set them, write them down, prioritize them, and communicate
them to your team.
3. Focus on output. You can't measure progress without output. Set them, write them down, prioritize them, and communicate
them to your team.

STEP 3

FOCUS ON RESULTS.

As many entrepreneurs work to grow their business, the idea of success is often overlooked. Each business is in fact capable of many, many different kinds of success.
Entrepreneurship is a way to grow, to build, to create, to innovate, and to achieve more.

Key focus areas:

The four key focus areas for success in your business are:
1. Time and effort: Measuring output and progress, prioritizing tasks, communicating priorities, and communicating output. This includes prioritizing tasks, setting goals, writing them down, and communicating them to your team.

The Pareto Principle, or 80/20 rule, is based on the concept of power law distributions.
You have a few people who work a lot of time and produce a lot of output. Then, the rest of the population who work a lot of time and produce a lot of output. This is the nature of the entrepreneur who prioritizes prioritizes tasks, sets goals, writes them down, and communicates them to their team.

It's important to be efficient. That's why you want to focus on the growth of your business.
