Wastelands John Joseph Adams, 2008-01-01 Famine Death War and Pestilence The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse the harbingers of Armageddon these are our guides through the Wastelands From the Book of Revelations to The Road Warrior from A Canticle for Leibowitz to The Road storytellers have long imagined the end of the world weaving tales of catastrophe chaos and calamity Gathering together the best post apocalyptic literature of the last two decades from many of today's most renowned authors of speculative fiction including George R R Martin Gene Wolfe Orson Scott Card Carol Emshwiller Jonathan Lethem Octavia E Butler and Stephen King Wastelands explores the scientific psychological and philosophical questions of what it means to remain human in the wake of Armageddon New Perspectives on Dystopian Fiction in Literature and Other Media Saija Isomaa, Jyrki Korpua, Jouni Teittinen, 2020-08-27 This collection of essays examines various forms of dystopian fiction in literature television and digital games It frames the timely trend of dystopian fiction as a thematic field that accommodates several genres from societal dystopia to apocalyptic narratives and climate fiction many of them examining the hazards of science and technology to human societies and the ecosystem These are genres of the Anthropocene par excellence capturing the dilemmas of the human condition in the current increasingly precarious epoch The essays offer new interpretations of classical and contemporary works including the canonised prose of Orwell Atwood and Cormac McCarthy modern pop culture classics like Battlestar Galactica Fallout and Hunger Games and the work of Johanna Sinisalo a pioneer of Finnish speculative fiction From Thomas Pynchon to Watership Down the volume's multifaceted approach offers fresh perspectives to those already familiar with existing research but it is no less accessible for newcomers to the ever expanding field of dystopian studies Evolution and Popular Narrative, 2019-06-07 The contributors to this volume share the assumption that popular narrative when viewed with an evolutionary lens offers an incisive index into human nature In theory narrative art could take a near infinity of possible forms In actual practice however particular motifs plot patterns stereotypical figures and artistic devices persistently resurface indicating specific predilections frequently at odds with our actual living conditions Our studies explore various media and genres to gauge the impact of our evolutionary inheritance in interdependence with the respective cultural environments on our aesthetic appreciation As they suggest research into mass culture is not only indispensable for evolutionary criticism but may also contribute to our understanding of prehistoric selection pressures that still influence modern preferences in popular narrative Contributions by David Andrews James Carney Mathias Clasen Brett Cooke Tam s D vid Barrett Tom Dolack Kathryn Duncan Isabel Behncke Izquierdo Joe Keener Alex C Parrish Todd K Platts Anna Rotkirch Judith P Saunders Michelle Scalise Sugiyama Dirk Vanderbeke and Sophia Wege

Hope and Kinship in Contemporary Fiction Gero Bauer,2024-01-11 Explores the emphasis that contemporary novels films and television series place on the present arguing that hope emerges from the potentiality of the here and now rather than the future and as intimately entangled with negotiations of structures of belonging Taking its cue from an understanding of hope as connoting an organizing temporality one which is often presumed to be projecting into a future Hope and Kinship in Contemporary Fiction challenges this understanding arguing that hope emerges in practices of relationality in the present disentangling hope from a necessary correlation with futurity Through close readings of contemporary works including The Road The Walking Dead Cloud Atlas Sense8 The People in the Trees and A Little Life Gero Bauer investigates how these texts explore structures of kinship as creative and affective practices of belonging and care that claim spaces beyond the heterosexual reproductive nuclear family In this context fictional figurations of the child often considered the bearer of the future are of particular interest Through these interventions into definitions of and reflections on fictional manifestations of hope and kinship Bauer s analyses intersect with queer theory new materialism and postcritical approaches to literature and cultural studies moving towards counterintuitively hopeful readings of the present moment
