Tobacman Allow these daily gems to inform and enrich your pilgrimage You will not be disappointed Rabbi Marcia Prager Dean of Students Aleph Ordination Programs Author of Path of Blessing The poetic meditations in this collection are drawn from the author's own practice of counting the Omer The Omer is a forty nine day period between the Jewish holiday of Pesach which celebrates freedom and Shavuot a time of revelation The practice also has agricultural origins linked to the spring harvest in ancient Israel The communal and agricultural roots of the Omer period make it an excellent opportunity for considering our relationship to each other to the Earth that sustains us and to the Source of All Life that blesses our own lives each day In 2006 author Shifrah Tobacman attended a seminar taught by Rabbi Zalman Schachter Shalomi He mentioned the idea of counting in a similar fashion for the seven weeks that lead up to Rosh Ha shana the Jewish new year He had heard of this idea from Cantor Michael Esformes who recommended counting down from forty nine at this time As Shifrah began to engage in this practice she found herself writing these poems which turned into meditations and finally became the substance of this book The meditations here are well suited for either counting the Omer or in preparing spiritually for a new year Shifrah is using the term Omer Teshuvah or Omer Teshuvah for the practice of counting down to the new year This counting begins immediately following Tisha B av which commemorates the destruction of the ancient Temple in Jerusalem The Hebrew word teshuvah refers to turning or returning It is used to describe the process of soul searching and forgiveness that Jews engage in particularly during the High Holy Days in the Fall and during the weeks which precede them One of Shifrah's teachers Rabbi Shawn Zevit offers these thoughts on Omer Teshuvah Raising up the motifs of each day and adding to our spiritual practice this collection guides the reader from a mindset of scarcity and tentative self realization through the sea of distraction and self doubt to a mountain of possibility and spiritual vibrancy Read these and help make each day count

Will we really be able to understand the admonition "The secret things belong to the LORD our God but the things revealed belong to us and to our sons forever that we may observe all the words of this law" (Deuteronomy 29:29)?

It provides contemporary examples of the relevancy of the Torah to all Messiah followers and how we are to all be conformed to His image (Romans 8:29).

Sayings of the Fathers: a Messianic Perspective on Pirkei Avot William Mark Huey, 2012-09-27. The Mishnah tractate Pirkei Avot or Sayings of the Fathers is a compilation of wise sayings, proverbs, and anecdotes dating from the Third Century B.C. to the Third Century C.E., forming much of the basis of ancient Jewish ethics. Many important parallels can be seen between remarks made in the Pirkei Avot and the wisdom sayings or teachings of Yeshua the Messiah, James the Just, and the Apostles Peter and Paul. In the Jewish community today, the Pirkei Avot are traditionally read and considered during the seven weeks between the festivals of Passover and Shavuot. Sayings of the Fathers: A Messianic Perspective on Pirkei Avot takes readers through not just one but two years of fifty-day reflections and six bonus days of some of the ancient wisdom seen in this valuable text. You will not only be introduced to some of the key views present in the Apostolic period but also be able to weigh the value that the Jewish Sages have in your own personal study and reflection upon the Holy Scriptures. Be prepared to join into an ancient discussion that spans the ages as you reflect on these words. Be blessed as your faith and outlook on the world are enriched and you have more to take to your Heavenly Father in prayer.

Omer Teshuvah Shifrah Tobacman, 2012-03-08. Omer Teshuvah collects Shifrah Tobacman's poems for Counting the Omer, mindfully sanctifying the passage of time between Pesach and Shavuot, and if you read the book from back to front, these poems can be used for the Omer Teshuvah, the 49 days between Tisha b'Av and Rosh Hashanah. These devotional poems will open your heart and spirit.

Torahscope Apostolic Scriptures Reflections William Mark Huey, 2012-04-23. The traditional Jewish discipline of reading the weekly Torah portion every week is something that today's Messianic Believers surely benefit from, but they, Jewish Believers who are discovering more about their Messiah from Moses' Teaching or evangelical Christians embracing their Hebraic Roots in a very real and tangible way. However, there can be a distinct tendency at times for the Messianic community to focus so much on the Torah or Law of Moses that the continued revelation of God in the rest of the Holy Scriptures is overlooked. Messianic Believers have the profound responsibility to recognize that as important as the Torah is to people of faith, that the Torah's goal or consummation is Yeshua the Messiah, Jesus Christ, as our mortal inability to fully keep the commandments of the Law is to reveal our need for a Divine Savior (Romans 10:4; Galatians 3:24). How can today's Messianic Believers really learn to appreciate the role that the Torah and the good news of Yeshua's salvation play together as the Lord molds us into an effective group that can fully accomplish His purposes. As many turn to the weekly Torah and Haftarah readings every week, Messianics have often associated a selection of key passages from the Apostolic Scriptures or New Testament. These either build on a theme detected within the various parashot or they are intended to add additional details for consideration. TorahScope Apostolic Scriptures Reflections is a compilation of insightful encouraging messages that incorporates information from the weekly Torah and Haftarah portions, connecting it to key messages in the New Testament gleaned from the studies and notes of William Mark Huey. It is the author's intent that we can all allow the great tapestry of God's Word to mold us into men and women who can understand the full importance of being disciples of the Messiah of Israel.

TorahScope Haftarah Exhortations William Mark Huey, 2012-02-28. In Jewish synagogues and Messianic congregations all over the globe, the weekly Torah portion is read on the Sabbath. Traditionally associated with the parashah is a small selection called the Haftarah, meaning conclusion. This is usually a segment from the Prophets or Writings of the Tanakh (Old Testament) which bears a thematic connection to the Torah reading. While the custom of considering a prophetic section arose during tenuous times in Jewish history when the people were forbidden to study from the Law of Moses, it was something firmly in place during the time of Yeshua (Jesus) and the Apostles (Luke 4:16-17; Acts 13:15). Commonly in some parts of today's Messianic community, we tend to forget that the Torah makes up the foundation of the Holy Writ, but by no means is the whole of the Holy Writ. Messianic Believers have a great blessing to consider the associated text from the Haftarah every week along with their Torah studies from which they can derive additional spiritual insight and blessings. In consulting both the Torah and Haftarah selections together, then we can all see the great and mighty acts of God throughout Biblical history and His interactions with Israel. We can be especially more in tune with what it means to see Yeshua in the Law of Moses and the Prophets and the Psalms (Luke 24:44). TorahScope Haftarah Exhortations is a compilation of insightful encouraging messages that take into consideration the weekly Torah and Haftarah portions gleaned from the studies and notes of William Mark Huey. It is the author's sincere hope and desire that his thoughts will give you key instructions in how we can be fully used by our Heavenly Father as faithful vessels for His service today.

Counting the Days Lea Gavrieli, 2016-04-12. What values are most important to us? What is true strength? What constitutes real kindness? How and when can the average 21st century family discuss these questions? There are few opportunities for parents and children to think together about values and spirituality in our always-on, very connected and busy culture. This book invites parents, teens, and school-aged children to indulge together in meaningful conversation during the seven weeks between Passover and Shavuot. The spiritual path of Counting the Omer is, of course, not only for children. This guide is child-friendly but not child-only. Counting the Omer, the Biblical command to attend closely to the 49 days separating Passover and Shavuot, was transformed by ancient mystics into an invitation to contemplate God's attributes and learn to emulate them wisely. humanity by enriching it with sparks of Divinity With quotes from philosophers scientists artists historical personalities and authors Counting the Days builds a framework for appreciative self reflection on the structure of the Sefirot the mystics description of seven discernable traits of the Divine It is designed for use year after year with simple contemplative exercises and meditations offered for those ready to dive more deeply than they can through words alone With Counting the Days as your guide you and your family can take the journey to Shavuot together and arrive feeling grateful renewed and connected
