

The Cove study guide

by Roger Stetson

Synopsis

In the 1960s, Richard O'Barry was the world's leading authority on dolphin training, working on the set of the popular television program Flipper. Day in and day out, O'Barry kept the dolphins working and television audiences smiling. But one day, that all came to a tragic end. The Cove, directed by Louie Psihogios (rhymes with Sequoia's), tells the amazing true story of how Psihogios, O'Barry and an elite team of activists, filmmakers and freedivers embarked on a covert mission to penetrate a hidden cove in Japan, shining light on a dark and deadly secret. The mysteries they uncovered were only the tip of the iceberg.

Background

Before examining important issues and themes raised by a viewing of The Cove, and of the nature and structure of the documentary film itself, we should first gain some background knowledge of topics such as: the long history, culture and tradition of the fishing industry in Taiji, in Japan; the history and role of the International Whaling Commission (IWC); and even the world-wide popularity and influence upon audiences of the famous American children's television series, Flipper.

Taiji

- Draw a map of Japan (or specifically the Japanese island of Honshu), marking the location of the small town of Taiji, in the prefecture (or governmental district) of Wakayama. (If you have trouble finding it, search Google Maps on the internet.) To place into geographical context, also label Tokyo, Hiroshima, Yokohama, Kobe and Nagoya. Mark the location off the Honshu coast of the Pacific Ocean and the Sea of Japan.
- Carry out appropriate research then write a short history of Taiji's association with whaling, extending back to the sixteenth century. Explain why, in the past, the citizens of the general region have had to rely on whaling for their livelihood and food supply. For example, why hasn't agriculture of the land been a viable local industry? Explain whether the annual dolphin drive is a long-standing traditional event, or whether it is relatively recent.

International Whaling Commission

- Research and write notes on the following

When and why was the IWC formed? What are the IWC's main activities and objectives today? How many countries currently belong to the IWC? Which countries in the IWC are
