Cosmopolitan Sociability Locating Transnational Religious And Diasporic Networks:

Cosmopolitan Sociability Tsypylma Darieva, Nina Glick Schiller, Sandra Gruner-Domic, 2014-06-11 This book approaches the concept of cosmopolitan sociability as a cultural or territorial rootedness that facilitates a simultaneous openness to shared human emotions experiences and aspirations. Cosmopolitan Sociability critiques definitions of cosmopolitanism as a tolerance for cultural difference or a universalist morality that arise from contemporary experiences of mobility and globalization. Challenging these assumptions the book explores the degree to which a cosmopolitan dimension can be practised within particular religious communities diasporic ties or gendered migrant identities in different parts of the world. A wide variety of expert contributors offer rich ethnographic insights into the interplay of social interactions and cosmopolitan sociability. In this way the book contributes significantly to ethnic and migration studies global anthropology social theory and religious and cultural studies. Cosmopolitan Sociability was originally published as a special issue of Ethnic and Racial Studies

Cosmopolitan Refugees Nereida Ripero-Muñiz, 2023-01-13 Exploring the dynamics of identity formation processes in diasporic spaces this book analyses how gender cultural and religious practices are renegotiated in a situation of displacement. The author presents the comparative case study of Somali migrant women in Nairobi and Johannesburg two cosmopolitan urban hubs in the global South. The book is based on and includes ethnographic observations in Nairobi and Johannesburg first person accounts of migration journeys across the African continent and women's reflections on what it means to be a Somali woman today and circumstances investigated by anthropologists are becoming ever more diverse the need to address social affiliation in contemporary situations of mobility urbanity transnational connections individuation media and capital flows has never been greater. Thinking Through Sociality combines a review of classical theories with recent theoretical innovations across a wide range of issues locales situations and domains. In this book an international group of contributors train attention on the concepts of disjuncture field social space sociability organizations and network mid range concepts that are good to think with. Neither too narrowly defined nor too sweeping these concepts can be used to think through a myriad of ethnographic situations

Thinking Through Sociality Vered Amit, 2015-02-01 As issues

Theorising Integration and Assimilation Jens Schneider, Maurice Crul, 2014-06-11 Theorising Integration and Assimilation discusses the current theories of integration and assimilation particularly those focused on the native born children of immigrants the second generation. Using empirical research to challenge many of the dominant perspectives on the assimilation of immigrants and their children in the western world in political and media discourse the book covers a wide range of topics including transatlantic perspectives and a focus on the lessons to be mutually learnt from American and European approaches to integration and assimilation rich empirical data on the assimilation integration of second generations in various contexts a new theoretical approach to integration processes in urban settings on both sides of the Atlantic. This volume brings together leading scholars in Migration and Integration Studies to provide a summary of the central theories in this area It will be an important introduction for scholars researchers and students of Migration Integration and Ethnic Studies This book was originally published as a special issue of Ethnic and Racial Studies Race and Ethnicity in Secret and Exclusive Social Orders Matthew W. Hughey,2015-04-10 Secret and private organizations in the form of Greek letter organizations mutual aid societies and civic orders together possess a storied and often romanticized place in popular culture While much has been made of these groups glamorous origins and influence such as the Freemasons genesis in King Solomon s temple or the belief in the Illuminati s control of modern geo politics few have explicitly examined the role of race and ethnicity in organizing and perpetuating these cloistered orders This volume directly addresses the inattention paid to the salience of race in secret societies Through an examination of the Historically Black and White Fraternities and Sororities the Ku Klux Klan in the US the Ekpe and Abakuj secret societies of Africa and the West Indies Gypsies in the United Kingdom Black and White Temperance Lodges and African American Order of the Elks this book traces the use of racial and ethnic identity in these organizations This important contribution examines how such orders are both cause and consequence of colonization segregation and subjugation as well as their varied roles as both catalysts and impediments to developing personal excellence creating fictive kinship ties and fostering racial uplift nationalism and cohesion This book was originally published as a special issue of Ethnic and Racial Studies

Racialization and Religion

Nasar Meer,2015-04-10 This volume locates the contemporary study of anti Semitism and Islamophobia squarely within the fields of race and racism As such it challenges the extent to which discussion of the racialization of these minorities remains unrelated to each other or is explored in distinct silos as a series of internal debates By harnessing the explanatory power of long established organizing concepts within the study of race and racism this collection of articles makes a historically informed theoretical and empirical contribution to aligning these analytical pursuits The collection brings together a range of perspectives on this subject including a comparison between Islamophobia in early modern Spain and twenty first century Europe an examination of the new anti Semitism and an analysis of online anti Muslim and anti Semitic jokes This book was originally published as a special issue of Ethnic and Racial Studies

Mobile Urbanity Neil Carrier,Tabea

Scharrer,2019-07-11 The increased presence of Somalis has brought much change to East African towns and cities in recent decades change that has met with ambivalence and suspicion especially within Kenya This volume demystifies Somali residence and mobility in urban East Africa showing its historical depth and exploring the social cultural and political underpinnings of Somali led urban transformation In so doing it offers a vivid case study of the transformative power of forced migration on urban centres and the intertwining of urbanity and mobility The volume will be of interest for readers working in the broader field of migration as well as anthropology and urban studies

Fighting Discrimination in Europe Mathias Möschel,Costanza Hermanin,Michele Grigolo,2013-09-13 The member states of the EU have only very recently begun to consider race and racism in the framework of equality legislation and policies As opposed to an established

Anglo Saxon tradition of naming races and using racial categorisation to fight racism most continental European countries resist this approach This book investigates the problematic reception and elaboration of race as a socio legal category in Europe Fighting Discrimination in Europe takes a fresh and interdisciplinary look at the normative theoretical and concrete problems raised by the challenge of devising and enforcing policies to combat race discrimination in Europe It engages with the juridical and political spheres from the international level down to concrete cases of state and city policies As the multifaceted relationship between race discrimination and immigration is explored new normative positions and practical approaches are developed and new questions raised This collection presents important new research for academics researchers and advanced students of Ethnic Studies Migration Studies Legal Studies Sociology Anthropology and Policy Studies This book was originally published as a special issue of Ethnic and Racial Studies New Chinese Migrants in New Zealand Bingyu Wang,2018-08-06 There are growing waves of desirable migrants from Asia moving to New Zealand a place experiencing increasing ethnic diversity particularly in its largest metropolitan region Auckland In purely demographic terms much of this diversity has been generated by policy shifts since the 1980s and the adoption of a comparatively liberal immigration policy based on personal merit without discrimination on the grounds of race national or ethnic origin Due to these changes migrants from China and Asia more broadly have become increasingly significant in migration flows into New Zealand This in turn makes New Zealand a valuable case study for understanding how Chinese migrants integrate into and affect their host nation Wang attempts to close a gap in contemporary research by relating cosmopolitanism to migration particularly in the Asian context With a cosmopolitan gaze towards migration studies she makes four key contributions to the ongoing scholarly discussion Firstly this is the first comprehensive study to use cosmopolitanism as a framework to study the lives of contemporary Chinese migrants with implications for migration studies as a whole It sheds light on the relationship between cosmopolitanism and migrant mobility taking a new approach to examine the living paradigms of international migrants Secondly this book identifies the emergence and development of cosmopolitanism outside the domain of Western middle class groups The concept of rooted cosmopolitanism is utilised to break down the Eurocentric notion of cosmopolitanism and to show the role played by Chinese rootedness during the process of becoming cosmopolitan and encountering diversity Thirdly the book advances and enriches the knowledge of studies in everyday cosmopolitanism by focusing on cosmopolitanism from below locating quotidian and down to earth cosmopolitan engagements that are grounded in everyday migrant lives Fourthly it looks at the emotional dimension of migrants negotiating difference and engaging in cosmopolitanism particularly the ways in which emotions undermine and promote the development of cosmopolitan sociability Transnational Professionals and Their Cosmopolitan Universes Magdalena Nowicka,2006 This book focuses on the relationship between physical space and social mobility focusing on the new phenomenon of the international professional who makes the world his home Mobile people Magdalena Nowicka reveals create their own spatial and cultural universes through daily routines and practices Even the choice of a specific residence Nowicka shows has definite local and global consequences Grounded in the influential theories of Ulrich Beck as well as the latest research in the sociology of space Transnational Professionals and their Cosmopolitan Universes is an important contribution to continuing debates on globalization and sociology    Sacred Places, Emerging Spaces Tsypylma Darieva, Florian Mühlfried, Kevin
