Counting On Kindness Dilemmas Of Dependency Paperback 1994:

Caring for You, Caring for Me David H. Haigler, Kathryn B. Mims, Jack A. Nottingham, 1998 Caring for persons with chronic illnesses or disabilities is a rewarding endeavor but it often places extreme demands on those providing care. Caregivers need both education and support to understand their caregiving roles and to cope with the difficult situations they face. All too often there is a chasm between professionals who are part of the formal caregiving system and family members, friends, and neighbors who provide daily care. The Caring for You Caring for Me education and support program is a valuable tool for use in providing caregivers with education and support. The program is designed to bring formal professional and informal lay family caregivers together to gain a better understanding of each other's perspectives on what it means to be a caregiver, with the hope that in the process both will learn to do it better. The program is based on caregiving research and the expertise of frontline caregivers. The Leader's Guide contains everything needed to conduct a ten-hour education and support program for caregivers: informational content, layouts for overhead transparencies, and suggested group activities. The companion Participant's Manual supports the presentation, providing a workbook for class activities, a suggested reading list, and a compendium of national sources of help for caregivers. Caring for You Caring for Me was developed by the Rosalynn Carter Institute under the guidance of the West Central Georgia Caregivers Network CARE NET. The Rosalynn Carter Institute was established in 1987. Its mission is to understand the process of caregiving and discover new ways to benefit both formal and informal caregivers. The Institute supports the premise that caregivers and care receivers can be served most effectively through the collaborative efforts of formal and informal caregivers, academicians, public and private services, and organizations representing caregivers and recipients of care.

Families in Later Life Alexis Walker, 2001-01-22 The introductory essays and readings drawn from both literature and social science research vividly illustrate the diversity of aging experiences both within and across American families, diversity conditioned by social space, historical time, and individual biography. Eleanor Palo Stoller Selah Chamberlain, Professor of Sociology, Case Western Reserve University. Families in Later Life is the only textbook on the subject that addresses the diversity of aging experiences in society by race, gender, and social class, and in a form which combines insight from the humanities as well as the social sciences. Includes a balance between empirical selections and literary pieces, keeping students interested and engaged while still introducing them to solid research. Every social science article included has been carefully edited so those students learn and enjoy their reading to the maximum extent possible. Framing Essays by the Editors, Questions for Discussion, and a complete Index make this book even more useful for teaching.

Foundations of Health and Social Care Robert Adams, 2007-07-20 Written specifically for students and practitioners in health and social care, taking foundation degrees or further professional qualifications, this textbook offers a wealth of material on contexts, knowledge bases, skills, and practices, as well as dealing with work carried out by those involved in treatment, therapy, advocacy, and management. Surviving Dependence Mary Ball, Frank Whittington, 2020-11-25 To date there has not been a clear look at the home care experience of older African Americans. Surviving Dependence: Voices of African American Elders attempts to meet the need for recording and interpreting the ordinary life of elderly African Americans on their own terms in their own surroundings and in so far as possible in their own words. Ball and Whittington's research is unique in two ways: it focuses on older people who are African American and poor, and it describes the viewpoint of care recipients and their relationships with the public programs designed to help them. This book provides an in-depth view of the experiences of these seven frail elders as both care receivers and as active participants in their own care. The two primary themes—the significant disabilities that often accompany old age and the tenacious will and ability to cope—possessed by our informants are reflected in the title Surviving Dependence.

Reading the Two Books of God Thomas W. Mann, 2022-09-29 Thomas W. Mann is a biblical scholar and retired parish minister and the author of numerous books and articles. He is particularly interested in how experiences in nature prompt theological reflection based in the Bible, shaping our sense of sacred time and place and how the lectionary readings of the church year also provide a spiritual calendar for the seasons of our lives. The result is a conversation inspired by poets and writers like Mary Oliver, Wendell Berry, and John Muir, but also by philosophers and theologians ranging from Abraham Joshua Heschel to David Kelsey. Along the way, we enter beach time and take backpacking trips in the Sierras, but also join the triumphal entry parade on Palm Sunday and listen to the stable animals on Christmas Eve. We perceive the beauty of creation through the eyes of science as well as religion, sensually as well as intellectually. We celebrate our communion with all creatures, from fungus to forests, inspired with awe and reverence and with a responsibility to care for the earth so threatened by climate change.

The Delicate Balance Berit Ingersoll-Dayton, Ruth Campbell, 2001 The Delicate Balance is a unique and insightful resource for gerontological professionals and students. Discover valuable and poignant lessons in these first-hand accounts of the diverse therapeutic relationships encountered when counseling older adults. Case studies range from traditional to in-home to facility-based settings serving individuals, couples, groups, or whole family and community systems. Counseling services range from self-discovery courses to formal cognitive restructuring therapy to substance abuse interventions to care management.

Ending Ageism, or How Not to Shoot Old People Margaret Morganroth Gullette, 2017-08-23 Winner of the MLA Prize for Independent Scholars and the APA's Florence L. Denmark Award for Contributions to Women and Aging. When the term ageism was coined in 1969, many problems of exclusion seemed resolved by government programs like Social Security and Medicare.
