Music Reference and Research Materials Vincent Harris Duckles,Ida Reed,Michael A. Keller,1997 This text has been the standard guide to source literature of music and contains critically annotated listings of over 3 500 key sources This comprehensive guide to reference sources is organized into chapters by category of source. The text's organization introduces students to a vast array of sources to include Dictionaries and Encyclopedias, Histories and Chronologies, Sources of Systematic and Historical Musicology, Bibliographies of Music, Music Literature and Music Business Reference Works on Individual Composers and Their Music, Catalogs of Libraries and Musical Instrument Collections, Discographies, Yearbooks, Directories, Electronic Resources, Biographical Dictionaries and Related Works Robert B. Slocum, 1986 American Women Songwriters Virginia L. Grattan, 1993-04-26 Although American women have written many of our most memorable popular songs, their contributions have received little recognition. The first biographical dictionary devoted to American women songwriters, this work profiles 181 well-known and little-known women who have written popular and motion picture songs, musicals, country, blues, jazz, folk, gospel, and hymns. Many African American and contemporary songwriter-performers such as Madonna, Janet Jackson, and Mariah Carey are included. This volume provides hard-to-find biographical and career information across the broad spectrum of indigenous American popular song. A history of women's contribution to the creation of American popular song emerges through these profiles. Grattan takes pains to profile the famous, the unsung, and those who persevered through sheer tenacity and against all odds. The dictionary is divided into ten music categories, and profiles are alphabetically arranged within each category. An introduction to each chapter gives an historical overview of women's contributions to that form of music. Each profile consists of an up-to-date biographical essay on private life, career as both songwriter and, in many cases, performer; most famous songs; and sources of further information. Entries are cross-referenced. Lyrics from a number of the best-known songs by women songwriters are included. A bibliography and song index will aid the researcher. The First Generation of Country Music Stars David Dicaire, 2015-01-27 This book focuses on 50 of the most important entertainers in the history of country music from its beginnings in the folk music of early America through the 1970s. Divided into five distinct categories, it discusses the pioneers who brought mountain music to mass audiences; cowboys and radio stars who spread country music countrywide; honky-tonk and bluegrass musicians who differentiated country music during the 1940s; the major contributions that female artists made to the genre; and the modern country sound which dominated the genre from the late 1950s to the mid 1980s. Each entry includes a brief biography of the chosen artist with special emphasis on experiences which influenced their musical careers. Covered musicians include Fiddlin' John Carson, Riley Puckett, Gene Autry, Roy Rogers, Bob Wills, Bill Monroe, Hank Williams Sr., Dale Evans, June Carter Cash, Loretta Lynn, Buck Owens, Roy Clark, Willie Nelson, and Merle Haggard. The Big Book of Country Music Richard Carlin, 1995 The ultimate guide to country music and its greatest artists includes more than six hundred entries profiling all types of contributors, providing biographies of musicians, characterizing styles, and tracking recording careers in all forms of country music. Collected Works of Charles Kingsley: Village sermons, and Town and country sermons Charles Kingsley, 1894 Reading Country Music Cecelia Tichi, 1998 With its steel guitars, Opry stars, and honky-tonk bars, country
