Britain's most authentically prophetic voice Daily Telegraph The choice with which humankind is faced is between the idea of power and the power of ideas From his appointment as Chief Rabbi in 1991 through to his death in November 2020 Rabbi Lord Jonathan Sacks made an incalculable contribution not just to the religious life of the Jewish community but to the national conversation and increasingly to the global community on issues of ethics and morality Commemorating the first anniversary of his death this volume brings together a compelling selection of Jonathan Sacks BBC Radio Thought for the Day broadcasts Credo columns from The Times and a range of articles published in the world's most respected newspapers along with his House of Lords speeches and keynote lectures First heard and read in many different contexts these pieces demonstrate with striking coherence the developing power of Sacks ideas on faith and philosophy alike In each instance he brings to bear deep insights into the immediate situation at the time and yet it as if we hear him speaking to us afresh giving us new strength to face the challenges and complexities of today's world These words of faith and wisdom shine as a beacon of enduring light in an increasingly conflicted cultural climate and prove the timeless nature and continued relevance of Jonathan Sacks thought and teachings One of the great moral thinkers of our time Robert D Putnam author of Bowling Alone

Who Will Bring Me Home? Jan Willem Kirpestein, 2023-10-06 This book is a profound meditation on power and love and in its wake on trust and hope The author offers a new approach of these ancient biblical values If human love is fascinated by power what is power's attraction and charm Love is fascinated by a promise of rootedness in a real future life This promise is experienced as a revelation of our true home It means that human love is expecting something from the one who possesses power Is he or she able to make the promise true Power should be cute otherwise it will be experienced as a repulsive force However without the possibility to become a repulsive force power is unable to unveil its executing force But the promise needs to be unconditional Love is a movement of one's free will Therefore love can become disappointed How were love trust and hope at work in relation to God's revelation in the Torah and at work in the consciousness and life of Jesus Christ What does that mean for us      Covenant and Conversation Yonatan Zaks, 2009      Covenant and Conversation Jonathan Sacks, 2010 In this second volume of his long anticipated five volume collection of parashat hashavua commentaries Rabbi Sir Jonathan Sacks explores these intersections as they relate to universal concerns of freedom love responsibility identity and destiny Chief Rabbi Sacks fuses Jewish tradition Western philosophy and literature to present a highly developed understanding of the human condition under God's sovereignty Erudite and eloquent Covenant Conversation allows us to experience Chief Rabbi Sacks sophisticated approach to life lived in an ongoing dialogue with the Torah      The preacher's commentary on the Book of Leviticus, by W.H.
