Covering Islam Edward Said:

Covering Islam Edward W. Said,1981 An unusually sharp look at the way in which the U S press and experts have dealt with the crisis in the Middle East and Iran

Covering Islam Edward W Said,2008-09-04 From the Iranian hostage crisis through the Gulf War and the World Trade Centre bombing the West has been haunted by a spectre called Islam As portrayed by the news media and by a chorus of government academic and corporate experts Islam is synonymous with terrorism and religious hysteria At the same time Islamic countries use Islam to justify unrepresentative and often oppressive regimes In this landmark work for which he has written a new introduction one of our foremost public thinkers examines the origins and repercussions of the media s monolithic images of Islam Combining political commentary with literary criticism Edward Said reveals the hidden assumptions and distortions of fact that underlie even the most objective coverage of the Islamic world

Covering Islam Edward W. Said,1981-05-01 Evaluates the American media s coverage of news stories concerning Islam and shows how misconceptions about the Middle East have been promoted

Covering Islam Edward W.

Said,1985 Using many examples Covering Islam demonstrates that the media and the government business establishment have produced a dangerously misleading and oversimplified portrait of Islam and Muslims based on ignorance inaccuracy and prejudice

Postcolonial Theory and the Arab-Israel Conflict Philip Carl Salzman,Donna Robinson Divine,2021-04-26 Postcolonial theory is one of the main frameworks for thinking about the world and acting to change the world Arising in academia and reshaping humanities and social sciences disciplines postcolonial theory argues that our ideas about foreigners the other particularly our negative ideas about them are determined not by a true will to understand but rather by our desire to conquer dominate and exploit them According to postcolonial theory the cause of poverty tyranny and misery in the world and of failed societies around the world is Euro American imperialism and colonialism Previously published as a special issue of Israel Affairs this work examines and challenges postcolonial theory In scholarly research based papers the specialist authors examine various facets of postcolonial theory and application First the theoretical assumption and formulations of postcolonial theory are scrutinized and found dubious Second the deleterious impact on academic disciplines of postcolonial theory is demonstrated Third the distorted postcolonial view of history its obsession with current events to the exclusion of the historical basis of events is exposed and corrected Fourth an examination of Middle Eastern culture challenges the assumption that these societies have been shaped entirely and victimized by Western intrusion Finally exploring the Arab Israel conflict the one sided case of postcolonial Arabism is explored and found to be faulty

Out of Place Edward W. Said,2012-10-24 WINNER OF THE NEW YORKER BOOK AWARD FOR NONFICTION From one of the most important intellectuals of our time comes an extraordinary story of exile and a celebration of an irrecoverable past A fatal medical diagnosis in 1991 convinced Edward Said that he should leave a record of where he was born and spent his childhood and so with this memoir he rediscovers the lost Arab world of his early years in Palestine Lebanon and Egypt Engrossing Said has an almost Proustian feel for smells sounds sights and telling anecdotes The New York Review of Books Said writes with great passion and wit about his family and his friends from his birthplace in Jerusalem schools in Cairo and summers in the mountains above Beirut to boarding school and college in the United States revealing an unimaginable world of rich colorful characters and exotic eastern landscapes

Underscoring all is the confusion of identity the young Said experienced as he came to terms with the dissonance of being an American citizen a Christian and a Palestinian and ultimately an outsider Richly detailed moving often profound Out of Place depicts a young man's coming of age and the genesis of a great modern thinker Freedom of Speech and Islam Erich

Kolig,2016-04-15 Freedom of speech and expression is considered in the West a high public good and an important social value underpinned by legislative and ethical norms Its importance is not shared to the same extent by conservative and devout Muslims who read Islamic doctrines in ways seemingly incompatible with Western notions of freedom of speech Since the Salman Rushdie affair in the 1980s there has been growing recognition in the West that its cherished value of free speech and associated freedoms relating to arts the press and media literature academia critical satire etc episodically clash with conservative Islamic values that limit this freedom for the sake of holding religious issues sacrosanct Recent controversies such as the Danish cartoons the Charlie Hebdo affair Quran burnings and the internet film The Innocence of Muslims which have stirred violent reactions in the Muslim world have made the West aware of the fact that Muslims religious sensitivities have to be taken into account in exercising traditional Western freedoms of speech Featuring experts across a spectrum of fields within Islamic studies Freedom of Speech and Islam considers Islamic concepts of blasphemy apostasy and heresy and their applicability in the modern world The Cambridge Companion to American Islam Juliane

Hammer,Omid Safi,2013-08-12 This book is a comprehensive introduction to the past and present of American Muslim communities Chapters discuss demographics political participation media cultural and literary production conversion religious practice education mosque building interfaith dialogue and marriage and family as well as American Muslim thought and Sufi communities No comparable volume exists to date Representing Culture Claudia Alvares,2009-03-26

The essays collected in this volume are interdisciplinary in nature defying the traditional boundaries that compartmentalise and contain knowledge within particular camps Heir to the undisciplining legacy of cultural studies they attempt to transcend the restrictive frameworks of pre established discourse engaging in new and fruitful combinations of theories and methodologies The general aim of the book is to indicate new perspectives for the exercise of cultural criticism on the basis of the major issues that confront us today rather than articulate any canonical viewpoint on traditional cultural studies These essays thus share a common denominator in that they seek to explore the field of current experience through the exercise of critique The recontextualisation of cultural studies that this book attempts occurs along the vectors of identity politics visual culture and technology The collection draws attention to the fact that these vectors do not consist in delimited camps but rather in axes that intersect with each other at each instance Covering Islam. "Islam as News." Edward W. Said,
