Social Buzz Gothic Fantasy:

Contemporary Women's Gothic Fiction Gina Wisker, 2016-11-04 This book revives and revitalises the literary Gothic in the hands of contemporary women writers It makes a scholarly lively and convincing case that the Gothic makes horror respectable and establishes contemporary women's Gothic fictions in and against traditional Gothic The book provides new engaging perspectives on established contemporary women Gothic writers with a particular focus on Angela Carter Margaret Atwood and Toni Morrison It explores how the Gothic is malleable in their hands and is used to demythologise oppressions based on difference in gender and ethnicity The study presents new Gothic work and new nuances critiques of dangerous complacency and radical questionings of what is safe and conformist in works as diverse as Twilight Stephenie Meyer and A Girl Walks Home Alone at Night Ana Lily Amirpur as well as by Anne Rice and Poppy Brite It also introduces and critically explores postcolonial vampire and neohistorical Gothic and women's ghost stories

Gothic Manners and the Classic English Novel Joseph Wiesenfarth, 1988 What is it that relates Austen and Trollope Bronte and Dickens to Eliot James Hardy and Ford How do novels like Pride and Prejudice and Barchester Towers and novels like Wuthering Heights and Great Expectations become part of Middlemarch The Portrait of a Lady Jude the Obscure and Parade's End For Joseph Wiesenfarth the relationships and connections are bound up in what he calls Gothic Manners His argument is that the salient elements of two genres that of the novel of manners and that of the new Gothic novel come together and form a synthesis which accounts in good part for the greatness of classical English fiction

The Supernatural Media Virus Rahel Sixta Schmitz, 2021-07-02 Since the 1990s the virus and the network metaphors have become increasingly popular finding application in a broad range of everyday discourses academic disciplines and fiction genres In this book Rahel Sixta Schmitz defines and discusses a trope recurring in Gothic fiction the supernatural media virus This trope comprises the confluence of the virus the network and a deep underlying media anxiety This study shows how Gothic narratives such as House of Leaves or The Ring feature the supernatural media virus to negotiate as well as actively shape imaginations of the network society and the dangers of a globalized technologized world

Seeing Things Alan Louis Ackerman, 2011-01-01 A technological revolution has changed the way we see things The storytelling media employed by Pixar Animation Studios Samuel Beckett and William Shakespeare differ greatly yet these creators share a collective fascination with the nebulous boundary between material objects and our imaginative selves How do the acts of seeing and believing remain linked Alan Ackerman charts the dynamic history of interactions between showing and knowing in Seeing Things a richly interdisciplinary study which illuminates changing modes of perception and modern representational media Seeing Things demonstrates that the airy nothings of A Midsummer Night's Dream the Ghost in Hamlet and soulless bodies in Beckett's media experiments alongside Toy Story's digitally animated toys all serve to illustrate the modern problem of visualizing as Hamlet put it that within which passes show Ackerman carefully analyses such ghostly appearances and disappearances across cultural forms and contexts from the early modern period to the present investigating the tension between our distrust of shadows and our abiding desire to believe in invisible realities Seeing Things provides a fresh and surprising cultural history through theatrical verbal pictorial and cinematic representations Edith Wharton and the Novel of Manners Gary H. Lindberg, 1975 SPIN, 1991-06 From the concert stage to the dressing room from the recording studio to the digital realm SPIN surveys the modern musical landscape and the culture around it with authoritative reporting provocative interviews and a discerning critical ear With dynamic photography bold graphic design and informed irreverence the pages of SPIN pulsate with the energy of today's most innovative sounds Whether covering what's new or what's next SPIN is your monthly VIP pass to all that rocks The Publishers Weekly, 2007 Thinking Northern Christoph Ehland, 2007 Thinking Northern offers new approaches to the processes of identity formation which are taking place in the diverse fields of cultural economic and social activity in contemporary Britain The essays collected in this volume discuss the changing physiognomy of Northern England and provide a mosaic of recent thought and new critical thinking about the textures of regional identity in Britain Looking at the historical origin of Northern identities and at current attitudes to them the book explores the way received mental images about the North are re-deployed and re-contained in the ever-changing socio-cultural set-up of society in Northern England The contributors address representation of Northernness in such diverse fields as the music scene multicultural spaces the heritage industries new architecture the arts literature and film Notions of Temporalities in Artistic Practice Anamarija Batista, 2022-07-04 The reflections on historical and contemporary positions assembled here shed light on concepts of temporalities in the context of artistic practices In the 1960s and 1970s the pursuit for the situational processual and actual stirred up artistic and theoretical fields Nowadays contemporary practices expand on these subjects by exploring the notion of anachronism the impermanence of one's own corporeality together with the performative and ephemeral qualities of the sonic amongst other relevant concepts The goal of this publication is to offer a deep dive into situation-specific settings and to fundamentally explore how temporality is able to initiate action and structure our perception thereby affecting our bodies our senses how we communicate and how the present moment is shaped The Look of Architecture Witold Rybczynski, 2001 A bestselling author offers a highly entertaining and insightful look at the meaning and importance of style to architecture This is a book brimming with sharp observations as it shows the connection between architecture interior decoration and fashion 10 line illustrations The Kenyon Review John Crowe Ransom, 2011 Editor winter 1939 autumn 1941 J. C. Ransom Post-Celtic Tiger Ireland and Contemporary Women's Writing Claire Bracken, Tara Harney-Mahajan, 2021-05-09 Post-Celtic Tiger Ireland and Contemporary Women's Writing Feminist Interventions and Imaginings analyzes and explores women's writing of the post-Tiger period and reflects on the social cultural and economic conditions of this writing's production The Post-Celtic Tiger period 2008 in Ireland marks an important moment in the history of women's writing It is a time of increased visibility and publication dynamic feminist activism and collective projects as well as a significant garnering of public recognition to a degree that has never been seen before The collection is framed by interviews with Claire Kilroy and Melatu Uche Okorie two leading figures in the field and closes with Okorie s landmark short story on Direct Provision This Hostel Life The book features the work of leading scholars in the field of contemporary literature with essays on Anu Productions Emma Donoghue Grace Dyas Anne Enright Rita Ann Higgins Marian Keyes Claire Kilroy Eimear McBride Rosaleen McDonagh Belinda McKeon Melatu Uche Okorie Louise O Neill and Waking The Feminists Reflecting on all the successes and achievements of women s writing in the contemporary period this book also considers marginalization and exclusions in the field especially considering the politics of race class gender sexuality ethnicity nationality and ability The chapters in this book were originally published in the journal LIT Literature Interpretation Theory
