Application for Spanish Professor

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my interest in the open position at your institution as a Spanish Professor. With 6 years of experience in university, college, and language school settings, I believe I am well-equipped to make a valuable contribution to your team.

Currently, I serve as the Lecturer of Spanish Language & Culture at the University of Sunnybank in Florida, where I teach Spanish for Business and Spanish Literature to undergraduate students. I have adapted to online teaching methods during the global pandemic, utilizing both asynchronous and synchronous approaches to deliver quality education.

In addition to my experience and bilingual fluency in Spanish, I hold a Master of Education with a focus on Spanish Language Education. I am dedicated to continuous professional development, as evidenced by my CV.

While I find my current role fulfilling, I am seeking new opportunities due to my family's relocation. I am eager to bring my expertise to a new environment where I can continue to positively impact the Spanish language program. After researching your institution, I am confident in our potential alignment.

I have attached my CV for your review. Thank you for considering my application, I look forward to the possibility of discussing how my skills and experience align with your needs.

Sincerely,

Marina Palau

Can I Wear My Nose Ring to the Interview? Ellen Gordon Reeves, 2009-04-23 Writing with enormous authority and a compelling, lively voice, Ellen Reeves brings together her lifetime of experience of hiring, counseling and doctoring into an essential guide for young job seekers. Can I Wear My Nose Ring to the Interview takes readers step by step through a process that was always tough but is today especially challenging. Yes, if you're wedded to your nose ring, wear it to the interview. No, you shouldn't be mailing out hundreds of resumes. Begin the search with a professional mind set, get organized and set yourself up with business cards, a respectable e-mail address and a working cell phone. The importance of networking and the rule of three try to make three e-mails or phone calls a day but never more than that. The elevator speech: hone your pitch to the length of an elevator ride and be prepared to use it at the most unexpected times. The art of writing cringe-free cover letters and killer resumes from timelines, hooks and grammatical do's and don'ts to why you should never use the phrase References available upon request, never include your GPA and never ever make a typo. How to dress for an interview including why to put on your business clothes when interviewing at home over the phone. Things to be honest about citizenship and past salary range. And things not to say: I want this job because I need health insurance. Then, once you're in, how to negotiate salary, what to expect in a review and basic first job common sense: take initiative, be humble and helpful, never use your boss as a confidant and always say I'll find out instead of I don't know. Now you're on your way.
