Conference,1994 Towards a New Primary Curriculum for South Africa Carol A. Macdonald,1993 Since 1979 Act 90 The Education and Training Act South Africa's law has stated that an official language i e English or Afrikaans could be used as the medium of instruction after Std 2 fourth grade in black education Almost without exception English was chosen by the primary schools This means that most children are introduced to the new subjects of history science and geography through the medium of English These subjects are encapsulated in textbooks that children find unusable and teachers have difficulty in understanding In 1990 the legislation was amended so that medium of instruction now becomes a matter of negotiation between the Minister of Education and the parents This negotiation is currently under way in many Department of Education and Training schools This change of legislation came as a direct result of research carried out over a period of five years on the Threshold Project 1985 1990 The overt cause of difficulties within the education system would have seemed to be a language policy that traumatises both teachers and pupils Inadequate time and materials are spent preparing children for a change in the medium of learning and the curriculum is not developed carefully enough to lead children to an understanding to a large number of abstract concepts by the fifth year of schooling

Resources in Education ,1992-03 The Crosscultural, Language, and Academic Development Handbook Lynne T. Díaz-Rico,Kathryn Z. Weed,1995 Mathematics as a Second Language Matthew S. Winsor,1998 A Course for Teaching English Learners Lynne T. Díaz-Rico,2008 A Course for Teaching English Learners CTEL Handbook offers strategies to equip teachers to work with English language learners balancing fundamental principles with practical classroom techniques. This book offers in a single volume a wealth of background principles underlying the cultural linguistic and sociocultural contexts and foundations of learning and by providing a comprehensive framework that doesn't only focus on reading and writing. Provisions in the federal No Child Left Behind Act NCLB call for yearly accountability in English language growth for language minority students. The CTEL Handbook addresses the new focus on testing procedures as well as adaptation for English learners during the test taking process. Throughout Lynne Diaz Rico provides the necessary background knowledge needed to educate English learners and also includes a variety of classroom methods for English language development in listening speaking reading writing and computer assisted instruction. From publisher's description ESL/EFL Teaching Yvonne S. Freeman, David E. Freeman, 1998. As in the original edition the authors provide a readable explanation of second language teaching methodology supported by numerous classroom examples. In addition the new edition includes detailed discussions and examples of EFL teaching as well as many scenarios from ESL classes.
