Smokin' Rockets Patrick Lucanio, Gary Coville, 2002-06-25 Science and technology had a significant influence on American culture and thought in the years immediately following World War II. The new wonders of science and the threat of the Soviet Union as a powerful new enemy made science fiction a popular genre in radio television and film. Mutant creatures spawned by radioactive energy and intergalactic dictators unleashing horrific weapons upon Earth were characteristic of science fiction at the time and served as warnings to the very real dangers posed by the atomic age. This work examines science and science fiction in American culture beginning in the year World War II ended and going to 1962 the year of John Glenn's orbital flight and the Cuban Missile Crisis. The radio work of Arch Oboler and the significance of his Rocket from Manhattan which aired only one month after the dropping of the first atomic bomb and asked serious questions about the use of atomic energy are examined. Other topics are the conflict between the free world and the Communist world in the context of science fiction plot lines the dangers of science as shown in films like Godzilla Them The Day the Earth Stood Still and radio and television programs the flying saucer phenomenon and the treatment of such stories in the media with special attention given to the 1956 documentary UFO the changing and more positive depictions of scientists television programs like Flash Gordon and Space Patrol the shift in the balance of world power due to the successful launching of Sputnik I by the Russians in 1957 the end of the world theme in science fiction and the American journey into space. A Short History of Film, Fourth Edition Wheeler Winston Dixon, Gwendolyn Audrey Foster, 2025-10-14 A Choice Significant University Press Title for Undergraduates This updated and expanded edition of A Short History of Film provides an accessible overview of the major movements directors studios and genres from the 1880s to the present. Succinct yet comprehensive with more than 250 rare stills and illustrations this edition provides new information on contemporary horror comic book and franchise films issues surrounding women and minority filmmakers the effects of the COVID 19 pandemic on movies worldwide the shift from film to digital production the rising use of artificial intelligence in cinema and the impact of streaming on the industry Beginning with the precursors of moving pictures Wheeler Winston Dixon and Gwendolyn Audrey Foster lead a fast paced tour through the invention of the kinetoscope the introduction of sound and color between the two world wars and ultimately the computer generated imagery of the present day They detail significant periods in world cinema including the creation of early major industries in Europe the dominance of the Hollywood studio system in the 1930s and 1940s and the French New Wave of the 1960s They also highlight independent efforts in developing nations and the corresponding more personal independent film movement that briefly flourished in the United States Compact and easily readable this is a vital history of international cinema is a one stop resource for students teachers and general readers alike

Jack the Ripper Gary Coville, Patrick Lucanio, 2015-06-14 The identity of Jack the Ripper has consumed public curiosity since he first tormented the East End of London in 1888. Numerous theories have been offered as to his identity but he remains in the shadows where it seems only imaginative literature has been able to elucidate his meaning to the modern world. This work surveys the literary film television and radio treatments of Jack the Ripper and his crimes. The works of fiction are thoroughly analyzed as are the major nonfiction works that have offered various theories about the Ripper's identity. Works whose narratives are obviously inspired by Jack the Ripper and his crimes are also discussed.

Alien Invasion

Dr. Travis S. Taylor, Dr. Bob Boan, 2011-06-07 The ultimate survival guide for the ultimate attack written by two top scientists who know their subject inside and out. An amazing journey through what we do and do not know about how to defend ourselves before, during and after an alien invasion from space. What if there really are aliens and they do attack? Read what two scientists reveal in this how to survival manual for the space age. Alien invasion Unlikely As unlikely as Pearl Harbor The extinction of the dinosaurs A meteor strike that levels whole forests in Siberia You get the drift Some events produce such a massive setback to life the Earth and to humanity that we must understand and prepare for them even if the chances are low that they'll come about. In fact it will be criminal and abrogation of our duty to future generations if we do not get ready. But where to begin Drs Travis S Taylor and Bob Boan have the answers. Both are experienced scientists physicists with expertise in both defense and military signal intelligence and experience working with both the Department of Defense and NASA These are intellectual heavyweights who have a clear idea of the possibilities of alien contact the calculations of whether or not that contact will be friendly and what to do if it s not An amazing journey through what we do and do not know about how to defend ourselves from space Sure that day may never come in our lifetimes but everyone should have a copy of this lying around JUST IN CASE Heck better yet why not commit a few of these scientists solutions to memory Just in case About Travis S Taylor s ground breaking popular fiction explodes with inventive action dazzling cutting edge scientific possibilities Publishers Weekly About Alien Invasion In a business that strictly separates technology and conjecture this is a well considered very comprehensive work United States Space is a serious business but what IF there is an external threat Dr Byron Knight NRO Chief Scientist MASINT the definitive book on the defense of earth against a potential alien incursion the book also serves as an important primer on the potential future of warfare on every level It is tightly grounded in current day realities of war and extrapolates thoughtfully but closely about future potentials It should be on the reading list of anyone who is serious about national security and the future of war John Ringo New York Times best selling author of military SF It looks like the time has come to take a serious look at planetary defense from all aspects This book introduces the subject in a way to stir thoughtful and intelligent debate Hats off to the authors Gerald B Helman former US Ambassador to the UN Geneva and Undersecretary of State for Political Affairs
