Chetan Bhagat Upcoming Novel:

Indian Popular Fiction Prem Kumari Srivastava, Mona Sinha, 2021-11-24 The scholarly essays in this book open up experimental and novel spaces and genres beyond the traditional and the literary world of Indian Popular Fiction as it existed towards the end of the last millennium. They respond to the possibilities opened up by the technology driven and internet savvy reading and writing world of today. Contemporaneous and bold, most of the essays resonate with the racy and fast-paced milieu and social media space inhabited by today's youth. Combative in its drift, this book makes possible an attempt to disband hierarchies and dismantle categories that have engulfed the expansive landscape of Indian Popular Fiction for too long. It facilitates discussion on graphic novels, microfiction, popular entertainment and political satire on television and celluloid, social media driven romances existing in the domain of the real rather than that of fantasy and mythological readings against the backdrop of gender and politics. Aimed at facilitating further research by scholars and enthusiasts of Indian Popular Fiction, this book is also an ode to the current trends generated by social and internet media cosmos. This book is co-published with Aakar Books, New Delhi. Taylor Francis does not sell or distribute the print versions of this book in India, Pakistan, Nepal, Bhutan, Bangladesh and Sri Lanka.

Overdetermined Ragini Tharoor Srinivasan, 2025-06-17 Why is it so difficult to account for the role of identity in literary studies? Why do both writers and scholars of Indian English literature express resistance to India and Indian-ness? What does this reveal about how non-Western literatures are read, taught and understood? Drawing on years of experiences in classrooms and on US university campuses, Ragini Tharoor Srinivasan explores how writers, critics, teachers and students of Indian English literatures negotiate and resist the categories through which the field is defined: ethnic, postcolonial and Anglophone. Overdetermined considers major contemporary authors who disavow identity even as their works and public personas respond in varied ways to the imperatives of being Indian. Chapters examine Bharati Mukherjee's rejection of ethnic Americanness, Chetan Bhagat's bad English, Amit Chaudhuri's autofictional literary project and Jhumpa Lahiri's decision to write in Italian, interspersed with meditations on the iconicity of the theorists Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak, Homi Bhabha and Edward Said. Through an innovative method of accented reading and sharing stories and syllabi from her teaching, Srinivasan relates the burdens of representation faced by ethnic and postcolonial writers to the institutional and disciplinary pressures that affect the scholars who study their works. Engaging and self-reflexive, Overdetermined offers new insight into the dynamics that shape contemporary Indian English literature, the politics of identity in literary studies and the complexities of teaching minoritized literatures in the West.
