Chevalier Touches French Barbey Daurevilly:

Secularism in French Cultural Discourse Vincenzo Pacillo, 2024-11-10 This book explores the interplay between literature and law showing how writers from Victor Hugo to Annie Ernaux have influenced and reflected changes in secularism The book examines pivotal moments like the Dreyfus Affair intellectuals roles during the World Wars and French socio political shifts highlighting literature s engagement with religious freedom church state separation and equality Focusing on post 1964 developments it discusses the rise of the specific intellectual and integrates philosophical and sociological insights into literary analysis offering a comprehensive view of la cit beyond legal interpretations This multidisciplinary approach reveals how literature and intellectual thought have shaped and defended secularism in France Aimed at scholars and enthusiasts of law literature history and politics this book is essential for understanding the cultural political and legal dynamics of contemporary French secularism

Robert Louis Stevenson and Nineteenth-Century French Literature Katherine Ashley, 2022-02-03 This study looks at French literature from Stevenson s perspective and at Stevenson from a French perspective Shedding light on how Stevenson s use of French contributes to his distinct style and how and why the earliest French critics translated disseminated and interpreted his books it does so in context of the debates surrounding the development of the novel at the fin de siecle Readers learn how the artistic debates taking place in France contributed to the evolution of Stevenson s art but also how Stevenson became a model of literary innovation for French authors and critics who were seeking to renew the French novel
