Bob Greene, 2010-05-25 In a warm affectionate true life tale New York Times bestselling author Bob Greene When We Get to Surf City Duty Once Upon a Town travels back to a place where when little more than a boy he had the grand good luck to find himself surrounded by a brotherhood and sisterhood of wayward misfits who on the mezzanine of a Midwestern building put out a daily newspaper that didn't even know it had already started to die. In some American cities Greene writes famous journalists at mighty and world renowned papers changed the course of history with their reporting. But at the Columbus Citizen Journal there was a willful rejection of grandeur these were overworked reporters and snazzy sportswriters nerve frazzled editors and insult spewing photographers who found pure joy in the fact that each morning they awakened to realize I get to go down to the paper again today.
