Cambridge Language Teaching Library A Series Covering:

Teacher Learning in Language Teaching Donald Freeman, Jack C. Richards, 1996-02-23 This book introduces a new field of educational research called teacher learning as it applies to the teaching of languages Up until recently the study of second language teacher education has focused mainly on the knowledge base and specific skills needed for effective teaching This book invites us to look at teacher education from a fresh point of view through an exploration of the thinking and learning processes of individuals as they learn to teach Seventeen original articles based on studies done in North America Europe Asia and Australia provide examples of pioneering research into the ways that individuals learn to teach languages and the roles that previous experience social context and professional training play in the process The collection thus helps establish a research base for this newly developing field

Task-Based Language Teaching David Nunan, 2004-12-09 The field of task based language teaching has developed considerably since the publication of Designing Tasks for the Communicative Classroom Nunan 1989 a book which helped to set the research agenda in teaching methodology for the following decade While Designing Tasks underpins this new title the material has been thoroughly updated and includes four completely new chapters Task Based Language Teaching offers a comprehensive and up to date appraisal of the field

Establishing Self-Access David Gardner, Lindsay Miller, 1999-03-11 Establishing Self Access examines establishing maintaining and developing self access language learning SALL While much of it presents practical ideas dealing with issues related to SALL they are supported by references to relevant literature and research This link between theory and practice makes the debate about SALL accessible and makes this a useful resource for establishing and running self access learning facilities Its unique features include a typology of self access facilities a discussion about how to manage self access a step by step guide on evaluating self access a wide variety of practical suggestions for implementing self access in different contexts It is suitable for anyone concerned with self access from pre service teacher trainees to experienced teachers and from managers of dedicated self access centres to administrators concerned with financing self access facilities

The Experience of Language Teaching Rose Senior, 2006-02-23 Through the words of more than 100 practising language teachers The Experience of Language Teaching provides a detailed picture of teaching and learning in communicative classrooms Using a teacher generated framework it covers a range of aspects of classroom life how teachers create environments suitable for language practice how they get students on side how they manage tricky students how they enhance the learning experience how they develop and maintain a spirit of community The book demonstrates how paying attention to both the learning and social needs of their class groups enables language teachers to behave in flexible ways that promote learning This book will be of interest to teachers teacher educators researchers and to anyone interested in finding out what it is like to be a language teacher at the present time The Experience of Language Teaching was winner of the Ben Warren International Trust House Prize in 2005
