Canadian Horror Film Terror Soul:

The Canadian Horror Film Gina Freitag,André Loiselle,2015-01-01 From the cheaply made tax shelter films of the 1970s to the latest wave of contemporary eco horror Canadian horror cinema has rarely received much critical attention Gina Freitag and André Loiselle rectify that situation in The Canadian Horror Film with a series of thought provoking reflections on Canada's terror of the soul a wasteland of docile damnation and prosaic pestilence where savage beasts and mad scientists rub elbows with pasty suburbanites grumpy seamen and baby faced porn stars Featuring chapters on Pontypool Ginger Snaps 1970s slasher films Quebec horror and the work of David Cronenberg among many others The Canadian Horror Film unearths the terrors hidden in the recesses of the Canadian psyche It examines the highlights of more than a century of Canadian horror filmmaking and includes an extensive filmography to guide both scholars and enthusiasts alike through this treacherous terrain

Shocking Cinema of the 70s Julian Petley,Xavier Mendik,2021-11-18 This collection focuses on 1970s films from a variety of countries and from the marginal to the mainstream which by tackling various difficult subjects have proved to be controversial in one way or another It is not an uncritical celebration of the shocking and the subversive but an attempt to understand why this decade produced films which many found shocking and what it was that made them shocking to certain audiences To this end it includes not only films that shocked the conventionally minded such as hard core pornography but also those that outraged liberal opinion for example Death Wish and Dirty Harry The book does not simply cast a critical light on a series of controversial films which have been variously maligned misinterpreted or just plain ignored but also assesses how their production values narrative features and critical receptions can be linked to the wider historical and social forces that were dominant during this decade Furthermore it explores how these films resonate in our own historical moment replete as it is with shocks of all kinds

Canadian Cinema in the New Millennium Lee Carruthers,Charles Tepperman,2023-01-15 At the turn of the millennium Canadian cinema appeared to have reached an apex of aesthetic and commercial transformation Domestic filmmaking has since declined in visibility the sense of celebrity once associated with independent directors has diminished projects garner less critical attention and concepts that made late twentieth century Canadian film legible have been reconsidered or displaced Canadian Cinema in the New Millennium examines this dramatic transformation and revitalizes our engagement with Canadian cinema in the contemporary moment presenting focused case studies of films and filmmakers and contextual studies of Canadian film policy labour and film festivals Contributors trace key developments since 2000 including the renouveau or Quebec New Wave Indigenous filmmaking i docs and diasporic experimental filmmaking Reflecting the way film in Canada mediates multiple cultures forging new affinities among anglophone francophone and Indigenous language examples this book engages familiar figures such as Denis Villeneuve Xavier Dolan Sarah Polley and Guy Maddin in the same breath as small budget independent films documentaries and experimental works that have emerged in the Canadian scene Fuelled by close attention to the films themselves and a desire to develop new scholarly approaches Canadian Cinema in the New Millennium models a renewed commitment to keeping the conversation about Canadian cinema vibrant and alive The Oxford Handbook of Canadian Cinema Janine Marchessault,Will Straw,2019-03-20 The chapters in The Oxford Handbook of Canadian Cinema present a rich diverse overview of Canadian cinema Responding to the latest developments in Canadian film studies this volume takes into account the variety of artistic voices media technologies and places which have marked cinema in Canada throughout its history Drawing on a range of established and emerging scholars from a range of disciplines this volume will be useful to teachers scholars and to a general readership interested in cinema in Canada Moving beyond the director focused approach of much previous scholarship this book is concerned with communities institutions and audiences for Canadian cinema at both national and international levels The choice of subjects covered ranges from popular genre cinema to the most experimental of artistic interventions Canadian cinema is seen in its interaction with other forms of art making and media production in Canada and at the international level Particular attention has been paid to the work of Indigenous filmmakers members of diasporic communities and feminist and LGBTQ artists The result is a book attentive to the complex social and institutional contexts in which Canadian cinema is made and consumed Hinterland Remixed Andrew Burke,2019-11-06

Like the flute melody from Hinterland Who's Who the 1970s haunt Canadian cultural memory Though the decade often feels lost to history Hinterland Remixed focuses on boldly innovative works as well as popular film television and music to show that Canada never fully left the 1970s behind Andrew Burke reveals how contemporary artists and filmmakers have revisited the era's cinematic and televisual residues to uncover what has been lost over the years Investigating how the traces of an analogue past circulate in a digital age Burke digs through the remnants of 1970s Canadiana and examines key audiovisual works from this overlooked decade uncovering the period's aspirations desires fears and anxieties He then looks to contemporary projects that remix remediate and reanimate the period Exploring an idiosyncratic selection of works from Michael Snow's experimental landscape film La Région Centrale to SCTV's satirical skewering of network television to L'Atelier national du Manitoba's video lament for the Winnipeg Jets this book asks key questions about nation nostalgia media and memory A timely intervention Hinterland Remixed demands we recognize the ways in which the unrealized cultural ambitions and unresolved anxieties of a previous decade continue to resonate in our current lives Cinema of Pain Liz Czach,André Loiselle,2020-07-29 Since the defeat of the pro sovereigntists in the 1995 Quebec referendum the loss of a cohesive nationalistic vision in the province has led many Québécois to use their ancestral origins to inject meaning into their everyday lives A Cinema of Pain argues that this phenomenon is observable in a pervasive sense of nostalgia in Quebec culture and is especially present in the province's vibrant but deeply wistful cinema In Québécois cinema nostalgia not only denotes a sentimental longing for the bucolic pleasures of bygone French Canadian traditions but as this edited collection suggests it evokes the etymological sense of the term which underscores the element of pain algos associated with the longing for a return home nostos Whether it is in grandiloquent historical melodramas such as Sraphin un homme et son pch Binam 2002 intimate realist dramas like Tout ce que tu poss des mond 2012 charming art films like CRAZY Vall e 2005 or even gory horror movies like Sur le Seuil Tessier 2003 the contemporary Qu b cois screen projects an image of shared suffering that unites the nation through a melancholy search for home Canadian Journal of Film Studies, 2005

Theatricality in the Horror Film Andr e Loiselle, 2019-10-28 The horror film generally presents a situation where normality is threatened by a monster From this premise Theatricality in the Horror Film argues that scary movies often create their terrifying effects stylistically and structurally through a radical break with the realism of normality in the form of monstrous theatricality Theatricality in the horror film expresses itself in many ways For example it comes across in the physical performance of monstrosity the overthe top performance of a chainsaw wielding serial killer whose nefarious gestures terrify both his victims within the film and the audience in the cinema Theatrical artifice can also appear as a stagy cemetery with broken down tombstones and twisted gnarly trees or through the use of violently aberrant filmic techniques or in the oppressive claustrophobia of a single room setting reminiscent of classical drama Any performative element of a film that flaunts its difference from what is deemed realistic or normal on screen might qualify as an instance of theatrical artifice creating an intense affect in the audience This book argues that the artificiality of the frightening spectacle is at the heart of the dark pleasures of horror A Century of Canadian Cinema Gerald Pratley, 2003 Indulge your love of Canadian films with A Century of Canadian Cinema Each entertaining review contains the film s director writer actors plot length and year of production The guide contains films from the industry s earliest beginnings in Canada right up to the latest releases from 1920s silent films to David Cronenberg and Denys Arcand and it offers insight from a long time industry observer into how and why these films have made an impact on the Canadian film industry and Canadian society From plaid jacket and toque wearing films shot in the Arctic to co productions filmed in tropical climes and from films shot in six weeks on a shoestring to ten year ordeals that nearly meant the end of everyone involved our directors and actors have done it all Using the guide s convenient cross indexing follow the first big breaks the roller coaster rides and the latest endeavours of your favourite Canadian talent Through his distinguished career Gerald Pratley has made an extraordinary impact on Canadian cinema In 1948 he became CBC s first film critic and commentator broadcasting every week until 1976 industry ever since Numerous honours have been awarded to Pratley in appreciation of his years of commitment Among them are the Queen s Jubilee Medal the Order of Canada an Honourary Doctor of Letters and a Special Genie Award for his exceptional support and encouragement of achievement and excellence in Canadian cinema Journal de la Societe Royale D'astronomie Du Canada Royal Astronomical Society of Canada, 2003 Library catalogue in 1911 31 p appended to v 4 The A-Z of Horror Films Howard Maxford, 1996 This is the most complete single volume guide to the horror movie from its beginning in the early years of cinema to the big budget movies of the present day The book covers the major studies also gives information on less
