Empowering Family-Teacher Partnerships: Building Connections Within Diverse Communities Mick Coleman, 2012-03
Empowering Family Teacher Partnerships Building Connections Within Diverse Communities prepares students to work collaboratively with families and community professionals in support of children's early education and development. Students are invited to develop a personal philosophy of family involvement to guide their work with families and to join a community of learners in relying upon their collective insights and problem solving skills to address family involvement challenges. The author takes a student centered approach to delivering substantive information and framing activities providing a comprehensive coverage of the diversity of family lives represented in classrooms and strategies for working with those families b challenges to family involvement and strategies for addressing them c strategies for communicating effectively with and empowering families and d reflections activities tip boxes and field assignments designed to facilitate students skills in building positive family school community partnerships

Family Literacies Rachael Levy, Mel Hall, 2021-04-19
Family Literacies demonstrates through reference to empirical research how shared reading practices operate in a wide range of families with a view to supporting families in reading with their pre school children. At the heart of this book written by two highly experienced experts in the field is a fascinating project that captured diverse voices and experiences by parents children and other family members. Rachael Levy and Mel Hall deploy a rich and distinctive theoretical framework drawing on insights from literacy studies education and sociology. Family Literacies presents an account of shared reading practices in homes focusing attention on what motivates parents to read with their children as well as revealing what parents may need if they are to begin and sustain shared reading activity. The authors show the many ways in which reading is centrally embedded in many aspects of family life arguing that this has particular implications for children as they start school. Situated within a socio cultural discourse this book explains why it is important to understand how and why shared reading takes place in homes so that all families can be supported in reading with their children. Family Literacies is essential reading for all those who are studying and researching literacy practices especially those involving young children. The book will also be of value to students practitioners and researchers in education and applied linguistics who are working with families and have an interest in the study of family practices. The authors findings have major implications for how parents can be encouraged to develop positive reading relationships with their children
