World Economic Outlook, April 2019 International Monetary Fund. Research Dept.,2019-04-09 After strong growth in 2017 and early 2018 global economic activity slowed notably in the second half of last year reflecting a confluence of factors affecting major economies China s growth declined following a combination of needed regulatory tightening to rein in shadow banking and an increase in trade tensions with the United States The euro area economy lost more momentum than expected as consumer and business confidence weakened and car production in Germany was disrupted by the introduction of new emission standards investment dropped in Italy as sovereign spreads widened and external demand especially from emerging Asia softened Elsewhere natural disasters hurt activity in Japan Trade tensions increasingly took a toll on business confidence and so financial market sentiment worsened with financial conditions tightening for vulnerable emerging markets in the spring of 2018 and then in advanced economies later in the year weighing on global demand Conditions have eased in 2019 as the US Federal Reserve signaled a more accommodative monetary policy stance and markets became more optimistic about a US China trade deal but they remain slightly more restrictive than in the fall

Positive Impact Investing Karen Wendt,2018-09-21 This book illustrates the impact that a focus on environmental and social issues has on both de risking assets and fostering innovation Including impact as a new cornerstone of the investment triangle requires investors and clients to align interests and values and understand needs This alignment process functions as a catalyst for transforming organizational culture within an organization and therefore initiates the external impact of the organization but also its internal transformation which in turn escalates the creation of impact Describing how culture is the social glue permeating all disciplines of an organization the book demonstrates how organizational alignment can be achieved in order to allow strategic speed innovation and learning and provides examples of how impact can be achieved and staff mobilized It particularly focuses on impact investing impact entrepreneurship innovation de risking asset green investment solutions and investor movements to counteract climate change and implementing the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals highlighting culture communication and strategy
