Viral Hit Myth Retelling Novel:

Filterworld Kyle Chayka, 2024-01-23 The story told here is instrumental to your own Jared Lanier Timely erudite important Ayad Akhtar What happens when our cultural and artistic lives are dictated to us by an algorithm What does it mean when shareability supersedes innovation How can we make a choice when the options have been so carefully arranged for us From coffee shops to city grids to TikTok feeds and Netflix homepages the world over algorithmic recommendations prescribe our experiences This network of mathematically determined choices the Filterworld has taken over almost unnoticed as we've grown accustomed to an insipid new normal But to have our tastes behaviours and emotions governed by computers calls the very notion of free will into question Internationally recognized journalist and New Yorker staff writer Kyle Chayka journeys through this ever tightening web woven by algorithms He explores how online and offline spaces alike have been engineered for seamless consumption How the lowest common denominator is promoted at the expense of the complex diverse or challenging How users of technology contend with data driven equations that promise to anticipate their desires but often get them wrong How the Filterworld is determining the very shape of culture itself Chayka skilfully and compellingly traces this creeping machine guided curation that influences not just what culture we consume but what culture is produced In doing so he attempts to answer to the most urgent question currently facing us is personal freedom ever again possible on the Internet Filterworld is a fascinating history of the rise of the algorithm and an important investigation into where it could take us next if we let it The Video Source Book David J. WEINER, 1990 Manatee's Best Friend Sylvia Liu, 2021-08-03 Perfect for fans of Catherine Hapka a heart warming story about a girl who must find her voice with lots of manatee and dolphin fun along the way Becca Wong Walker may be so shy that most people at school think she doesn't speak at all but why should she care She has more important things to worry about Missy the manatee who visits the dock in Becca's backyard and Becca's only friend hasn't been seen for a long time When Missy finally does return she has a new baby with her Becca wants to be excited but more than ever inconsiderate boaters are speeding through the river putting the lives of Missy and her baby in terrible danger One day Becca spots a dolphin in the river too By bonding over the dolphin and manatees Becca finally starts to make friends at school But when Becca takes a video that goes viral it seems like it will be harder than ever to save the manatees and trying might just tear Becca's new friendships apart The City Since 9/11 Keith Wilhite, 2016-03-04 Charting the intersection of aesthetic representation and the material conditions of urban space The City Since 9/11 posits that the contemporary metropolis provides a significant context for reassessing theoretical concerns related to narrative identity home and personal precarity In the years since the September 11 attacks writers and filmmakers have explored urban spaces as contested sites shaped by the prevailing discourses of neoliberalism homeland security and the war on terror but also haunted by an absence in the landscape that registers loss and prefigures future menace In works of literature film and television the city emerges as a paradoxical space of permanence and vulnerability and a convergence point for anxieties about globalization structural inequality and apocalyptic violence Building on previous scholarship addressing trauma and the spectacle of terror the contributors also draw upon works of philosophy urban studies and postmodern geography to theorize how literary and visual representations expose the persistent conflicts that arise as cities rebuild in the shadow of past ruins Their essays advance new lines of argument that clarify art's role in contemporary debates about spatial practices gentrification cosmopolitanism memory and history nostalgia the uncanny and the abject postmodern virtuality the politics of realism and the economic and social life of cities The book offers fresh readings of familiar post 9 11 novels such as Jonathan Safran Foer's Extremely Loud Incredibly Close but it also considers works by Teju Cole Joseph O'Neill Silver Krieger Colum McCann Ronald Sukenick Jonathan Lethem Thomas Pynchon Colson Whitehead Paul Auster William Gibson Amitav Ghosh and Katherine Boo In addition The City Since 9 11 includes essays on the films Children of Men Hugo and the adaptation of Extremely Loud Incredibly Close chapters on the television series The Bridge The Killing and The Wire and an analysis of Michael Arad's Reflecting Absence and the 9 11 Memorial
