crucial bridge between strategic thinking and the reality of the built environment This book is a must read for professionals seeking to incorporate broader design strategy into their practice Architecture and Anthropology Adam

Jasper,2020-05-21 Both architecture and anthropology emerged as autonomous theoretical disciplines in the 18th century enlightenment Throughout the 19th century the fields shared a common icon the primitive hut and a common concern with both routine needs and ceremonial behaviours Both could lay strong claims to a special knowledge of the everyday And yet in the 20th century notwithstanding genre classics such as Bernard Rudofsky s Architecture without Architects or Paul Oliver s Shelter and various attempts to make architecture anthropocentric such as Corbusier s Modulor disciplinary exchanges between architecture and anthropology were often disappointingly slight This book attempts to locate the various points of departure that might be taken in a contemporary discussion between architecture and anthropology The results are radical post colonial theory is here counterpoised to 19th century theories of primitivism archaeology is set against dentistry fieldwork is juxtaposed against indigenous critique and climate science is applied to questions of shelter This publication will be of interest to both architects and anthropologists The chapters in this book were originally published within two special issues of Architectural Theory Review Workflows Richard Garber,2017-03-27 Workflows are being rethought and remodelled across the architecture engineering and construction AEC spectrum The synthesis of building information modelling BIM platforms with digital simulation techniques and increasing access to data charting building performance is allowing architects to engage in the generation of new workflows across multidisciplinary teams By merging digital design operations with construction activities project delivery and post occupation scenarios architects are becoming instrumental in the shaping of buildings as well as the design process Workflows expand the territory of architectural practice by extending designers remit beyond the confines of the design stage The implications for the AEC industry and architecture as a profession could not be greater These new collaborative models are becoming as important as the novel buildings they allow us to produce Contributors include Shajay Bhooshan John Cays Randy Deutsch Sean Gallagher Ian Keough Peter Kis Jonathan Mallie Adam Modesitt Rhett Russo Dale Sinclair and Stacie Wong Featured architects Arup Diller Scofidio Renfro GLUCK GRO Architects PLANT Populous Young Ayata and Zaha Hadid Architects The Routledge Companion to Modernity, Space and Gender Alexandra Staub,2018-03-09 The Routledge Companion to Modernity Space and Gender reframes the discussion of modernity space and gender by examining how modernity has been defined in various cultural contexts of the twentieth and twenty first centuries how this definition has been expressed spatially and architecturally and what effect this has had on women in their everyday lives In doing so this volume presents theories and methods for understanding space and gender as they relate to the development of cities urban space and individual building types such as housing work spaces or commercial spaces in both the creation of and resistance to social transformations and modern global capitalism The book contains a diverse range of case studies from the US Europe the UK and Asian countries such as

China and India which bring together a multiplicity of approaches to a continuing and common issue and reinforces the need for alternatives to the existing theoretical canon
