Empowering Family-Teacher Partnerships: Building Connections Within Diverse Communities Mick Coleman, 2012-03 Empowering Family Teacher Partnerships Building Connections Within Diverse Communities prepares students to work collaboratively with families and community professionals in support of children's early education and development. Students are invited to develop a personal philosophy of family involvement to guide their work with families and to join a community of learners in relying upon their collective insights and problem solving skills to address family involvement challenges. The author takes a student centered approach to delivering substantive information and framing activities providing a comprehensive coverage of the diversity of family lives represented in classrooms and strategies for working with those families b challenges to family involvement and strategies for addressing them c strategies for communicating effectively with and empowering families and d reflections activities tip boxes and field assignments designed to facilitate students skills in building positive family school community partnerships Psychology of Education: The school curriculum Peter K. Smith, Anthony D. Pellegrini, 2000 Coming Together as Readers Donna Ogle, 2007-07-03 Perfect for teachers and school administrators looking to bridge the reading gap between the school and community. Provides many useful and relevant suggestions. Ken Schofield Principal Chaparral Elementary School Phoenix AZ I absolutely enjoyed the text. The amount of studies and research based decision making strategies make this resource invaluable for schools working on school improvement plans. This book could be used as a textbook for reading improvement. Lyndon Oswald Principal Sandcreek Middle School Idaho Falls ID Create a community supported culture of reading that fosters students lifelong cognitive development. Based on the premise that student growth in literacy is strengthened when all stakeholders are involved. Coming Together as Readers Second Edition helps educators forge community collaborations to build successful reading at all grade levels. Drawing on her experience as a teacher professor and former president of the International Reading Association literacy expert Donna Ogle offers creative strategies for using university partnerships teacher collaboration and family involvement to help shape inform and support reading habits beyond the primary grades. The author also provides an easy to administer survey for diagnosing a school's reading culture and demonstrates how to identify priorities and create a vision encourage shared discussion and study and move toward positive change that promotes ideal conditions for developing literacy. Aligned with national reading initiatives and standards this updated research based edition includes A new chapter about gaining support from libraries.
