Instant Sunday Times Bestseller Wonderfully wicked Red Magazine A gleeful satire Sunday Times Ferociously entertaining Good Housekeeping UK With the bite of The White Lotus and the family dynamics of Succession What a Way to Go is an uproarious and satirical whodunnit about people behaving badly and perhaps finally getting their just deserts from the author of the mega bestseller How to Kill Your Family When Anthony Wistern died he expected his family to make a bit more of a fuss about it Especially after he d died in such dramatic fashion skewered by an exorbitantly expensive party decoration in the private lake of his Cotswold s manor house at his sixtieth birthday party surrounded by the people for whom he most loved flaunting his wealth And now even death has disappointed him instead of Heaven or Hell or an empty void Anthony s soul is stuck in a strange kind of purgatory while he tries to figure out who killed him before he is finally released from this interminably exasperating waiting room Olivia Wistern knows she should probably try to appear at least a little upset about her husband s death but she honestly can t be bothered As usual he s left behind an unbelievable mess financially socially personally that she s going to have to clean up Their four grown children will be of absolutely no help she shouldn t have let them become so hopelessly spoiled And is it just her or are the police and their murder investigation intentionally getting underfoot There s no shortage of people who hated Anthony so can t they look for a killer somewhere other than her house While the Wisterns are more concerned about the fate of their money than the fate of their patriarch one internet sleuth is highly interested in Anthony Wistern s death She isn t about to let the opportunity to create a sure to be smash true crime podcast pass by not when the murder was committed mere yards away and not when she has her own history with the victim She ll make her name and her own fortune off Anthony s death one way or another whatever it takes

how it stems from legitimate complaints how seductive marketing targets hopeful consumers and why women are opening up their wallets like never before Wellness promises women the one thing they desperately desire control Women are pursuing their health like never before Whether it's juicing biohacking clutching crystals or sipping collagen today there is something for everyone as the wellness industry has grown from modest roots into a $4 trillion entity and a full-blown movement promising health and vitality in the most fashionable package But why suddenly are we all feeling so unwell The truth is that deep within the underbelly of self-care hidden beneath layers of clever marketing wellness beckons with a far stronger more seductive message than health alone It promises women the one thing they desperately desire control Vividly told and deeply reported The Gospel of Wellness reveals how this obsession is a direct result of women feeling dismissed mistreated and overburdened Women are told they can manage the chaos ruling their life by following a laid-out plan eat right exercise meditate then buy or do all this stuff And while wellness may have sprung from good intentions we are now relentlessly flooded with exploitative offerings questionable ideas and a mounting pressure to stay devoted to the divine doctrine of wellness What happens when the cure becomes as bad as the disease With a critical eye humor and empathy wellness industry journalist Rina Raphael examines how women have been led down a kale-covered path promising nothing short of salvation She knows Raphael was once a disciple herself trying everything from clean eating to electric shock workouts until her own awakening to the troubling consequences Balancing the good with the bad The Gospel of Wellness is a clear-eyed exploration of what wellness can actually offer us knocking down the false idols and commandments that have taken hold and ultimately showing how we might shape a better future for the movement and for our well-being     Selfhelp Stories , 1900*
