work in the history of psychology When Carl Jung embarked on an extended self exploration he called his confrontation with the unconscious the heart of it was The Red Book a large illuminated volume he created between 1914 and 1930 Here he developed his principle theories of the archetypes the collective unconscious and the process of individuation that transformed psychotherapy from a practice concerned with treatment of the sick into a means for higher development of the personality While Jung considered The Red Book to be his most important work only a handful of people have ever seen it Now in a complete facsimile and translation it is available to scholars and the general public It is an astonishing example of calligraphy and art on a par with The Book of Kells and the illuminated manuscripts of William Blake This publication of The Red Book is a watershed that will cast new light on the making of modern psychology Lament of the Dead James Hillman, Sonu Shamdasani, 2013-08-26 With Jung's Red Book as their point of departure two leading scholars explore issues relevant to our thinking today In this book of dialogues James Hillman and Sonu Shamdasani reassess psychology history and creativity through the lens of Carl Jung's Red Book Hillman the founder of Archetypal Psychology was one of the most prominent psychologists in America and is widely acknowledged as the most original figure to emerge from Jung's school Shamdasani editor and cotranslator of Jung's Red Book is regarded as the leading Jung historian Hillman and Shamdasani explore a number of the issues in the Red Book such as our relation with the dead the figures of our dreams and fantasies the nature of creative expression the relation of psychology to art narrative and storytelling the significance of depth psychology as a cultural form the legacy of Christianity and our relation to the past and examine the implications these have for our thinking today [Bert on Carl G. Answer to Jung Lynn Brunet, 2018-11-08 The Red Book is C G Jung's record of a period of deep penetration into his unconscious mind in a process that he called active imagination undertaken during his mid life period Answer to Jung Making Sense of The Red Book provides a close reading of this magnificent yet perplexing text and its fascinating images and demonstrates that the fantasies in The Red Book are not entirely original but that their plots characters and symbolism are remarkably similar to some of the higher degree rituals of Continental Freemasonry It argues that the fantasies may be memories of a series of terrifying initiatory ordeals possibly undergone in childhood using altered or spurious versions of these Masonic rites It then compares these initiatory scenarios with accounts of ritual trauma that have been reported since the 1980s This is the first full length study of The Red Book to focus on the fantasies themselves and provide such an external explanation for them Sonu Shamdasani describes The Red Book as an incomplete task that Jung left to posterity as a message in a bottle that would someday come ashore Answer to Jung brings its message to shore providing a coherent but disturbing interpretation of each of the fantasies and their accompanying images Chapters Chapter 4 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 license

Jung's Red Book for Our Time Murray Stein, Thomas Arzt, 2021-09-25 The spiritual malaise regnant in today's disenchanted world presents a picture of a polar night of icy darkness as Max Weber wrote already a century ago This collective dark night of the soul is driven by climate change related disasters rapid technological innovations and opaque geostrategic realignments In the wake of what policy analysts refer to as Westlessness the post modern age is characterized by incessant distractions urgent calls to responsibility and in humanly short deadlines which result in a general state of exhaustion and burnout The hovering sense of living in a time frame that is post histoire induces states of confusion on a personal level as well as in the realm of politics Totally missing is a grand narrative to guide humanity's vision in the midst of a world crisis Thinkers scholars and Jungian analysts are increasingly looking to C G Jung's monumental oeuvre The Red Book as a source for guidance to re-enchant the world and to find a new and deeper understanding of the homo religiosus The essays in this series on Jung's Red Book for Our Time Searching for Soul under Postmodern Conditions circle around this objective and offer countless points of entry into this inspiring work     Jung's Red Book for Our Time: Searching for Soul In the 21st Century Murray

Stein, 2022-12-10 Do we like Jung need to leave the spirit of the time and follow the spirit of the depths to call out my soul where are you through the windows of our now post modern homes We live in a digital world of incredible virtual interconnectedness but at the same time fragmented and divided on many levels including the psychological The pace of life is rapid and ever accelerating The spirit of the time is flux It twitters There is no sense of coherence in the whole The guidance of a transcendent North Star is invisible to the naked eye of consciousness Our existential crisis is not about the individual alone It infects the entire human world like the Covid 19 pandemic Wars between cultural brothers and sisters increasingly dire effects of climate change economic disruptions hunger migration these conditions affect everyone on the planet Is there a spirit of the depths that can take us through this Inferno perhaps toward the emergence of a meaningful narrative that can stabilize the global community and provide a collective sense of supreme meaning This is the search for soul in the 21st Century     The Red Book of C.G. Jung in Love Lance S. Owens, 2015-11-15 Love was the great mystery in C G Jung's life His confrontation with love for a woman and a feminine soul animated the composition of Jung's great Red Book the book he formally titled Liber Novus C G Jung's relationships with women during these central years of life have generated several commentaries and critiques But the power and depth of love has figured little in most of the romances about this period patched together by biographers dramatists and psychoanalysts In consequence a crux experience of Jung's life has been miscast and little understood Three decades after the events chronicled in his Red Book C G Jung turned to writing a commentary on the still hidden records In Jung in Love Lance Owens illustrates how Jung's four last books his last quartet of major works published after 1945 are summary statements about his experiences during the years he labored with Liber Novus Owens illustrates how in the first volume of this last quartet The Psychology of the Transference published in 1946 Jung employed a sixteenth century alchemical text to provide context for what is in fact a statement about his own experience with love recounted both in his private journals and in Liber Novus Based on long sequestered documentary sources Jung in Love offers a balanced and historically contextualized account of Jung's relationships with four women during the years that led him into the visionary experiences recorded in the Red Book Emma Jung Rauschenbach Sabina Spielrein Maria Moltzer and Toni Wolff Jung in Love The Mysterium in Liber Novus was originally published as a chapter in Das Rote Buch C G Jung's Reise zum anderen Pol der Welt ed Thomas Arzt Verlag K nigshausen Neumann 2015 This English monograph edition adds illustrations and minor corrections to the previously published edition
