Caribbean Folklore A Handbook:

Caribbean Folklore Donald R. Hill, Archiving Creole Voices Marl'ene Edwin, 2024-12-20 Archiving Creole Voices Representations of Language and Culture begins with a re reading of selected texts by female Caribbean writers specifically Joan Anim Addo Olive Senior and Merle Collins and proclaims that literary fiction can and does function as a creolised archive Marl'ene Edwin argues that historic marginalisation which has barred Caribbean scholars from entering formal archival spaces has created an alternative discourse Consequently Caribbean writers have chosen the imagined landscapes of literature a new archival space for the Caribbean within which to document and preserve Caribbean cultural traditions Fiction allows for the safeguarding of traditions so how then should Caribbean literature be read The combination of a physical and a virtual archive questions the literary and linguistic interface that such a mingling entails in a preservation of Caribbean culture Edwin argues for an appreciation of orality as performance as well as the reading of texts as creolised archive Stories in Letters - Letters in Stories Rebekka Schuh, 2021-10-04 This book deals with letters in Anglophone Canadian short stories of the late twentieth and the early twenty first century in the context of liminality It argues that in the course of the epistolary renaissance the letter which has often been deemed to be obsolete in literature has not only enjoyed an upsurge in novels but also migrated to the short story thus constituting the genre of the epistolary short story

Bibliographic Index, 2009 The Reporter's Handbook Carrol Baker Dotson, 1926 The Handbook of Jamaica for ..., 1947 Process and Pattern in Culture Robert Alan Manners, Julian Haynes Steward, This festschrift commemorates Julian H Steward The essays were contributed by former students colleagues and other anthropologists whose research or thinking has been influenced by him There was no preconceived attempt to give the volume any greater sense of unity or to impose upon the contributors any restrictions as to subject matter On the contrary each author was urged to write on an anthropological topic of greatest current interest to himself Many of the essays could be placed just as handily within a division other than the one to which they have arbitrarily been assigned in the book This kind of interchangeability may reflect in some measure the interrelatedness of Steward's contributions to anthropological theory The broad relevance of all the selections to Steward's work could reflect also the extent to which his interests continue to be reflected in the work of anthropologists influenced by him It could also reflect a parallelism of theoretical concerns within the profession that stem from the cultural ambience that produced Steward himself Parallelisms and convergence are aspects of the kind of cultural determinism which has claimed Steward's attention during the many years that he fought a fairly lonely battle to establish the respectability of evolutionism in anthropology Now that respectability has been achieved with an almost bandwagon fervor it is clear that Steward as much as anyone else in anthropology was responsible for the change The essays in this collection are at once a vindication of his patience an evidence of the high status he enjoys among anthropologists and a testimony to the impact of his unusual creativity on his colleagues Walford's Guide to Reference Material: Social and
