Dialectical Journal Frankenstein:

Ecocriticism and the Idea of Culture Helena Feder, 2016-04-29 Ecocriticism and the Idea of Culture Biology and the Bildungsroman draws on work by Kinji Imanishi Frans de Waal and other biologists to create an interdisciplinary materialist notion of culture for ecocritical analysis In this timely intervention Feder examines the humanist idea of culture by taking a fresh look at the stories it explicitly tells about itself These stories fall into the genre of the Bildungsroman the tale of individual acculturation that participates in the myth of its complete separation from and opposition to nature which Feder argues is culture's own origin story Moving from Voltaire's Candide to Mary Shelley's Frankenstein and from Virginia Woolf's Orlando to Jamaica Kincaid's Lucy the book dramatizes humanism's own awareness of the fallacy of this foundational binary In the final chapters Feder examines the discourse of animality at work in this narrative as a humanist fantasy about empathy one that paradoxically excludes other animals from the ethical community to justify the continued domination of both human and nonhuman others

Screening Economies Daniel Cuonz, Scott Loren, Jörg Metelmann, 2018-10-04 The relationship between economy finance and society has become opaque Quantum leaps in complexity and scale have turned this deeply interdependent web of relations into an area of incomprehensible abstraction And while the economization of life has come under widespread critique inquiry into the political potential of representational praxis is more crucial than ever This volume explores ethical aesthetic and ideological dimensions of economic representation redressing essential questions What are the roles of mass and new media How do the arts contribute to critical discourse on the global techno economic complex Collectively the contributions bring theoretical debate and artistic intervention into a rich exchange that includes but also exceeds the conventions of academic scholarship
