The Complexity of Our Relationships and the Paradox of Love Calvin Motebang, 2012-07-03 Dr Calvin Motebang argues that as we live in a complex busy changing and very stressful world counselling has become a buzzword of the day Counseling is one of the effective means for developing human potential Yet counseling has been evolving slowly in developing countries There are many different types of experiences that are difficult for people to cope with Most of the time we get on with life but sometimes we are stopped in our tracks by an event or situation that we do not at that moment have the resources to sort out In this book titled The Complexity of Our Relationships and the Paradox of Love Dr Motebang discusses pertinent issues such as exposure and awareness of the complexity of love and marriage the difference between gender behaviours the paradox of love knowledge in the art of sex and romance He concludes his book by looking at the roles and responsibilities in decision making and many other interesting fields in marital relationships Freedom for My People Zachariah Keodirelang Matthews, 1981 Historical Dictionary of Lesotho Scott Rosenberg, Richard F. Weisfelder, 2013-06-13 Lesotho is rather different from most other African countries For starters it is a kingdom which preserves a traditional hierarchy and customs and its population consists of one fairly homogenous ethnic group although admittedly there are differences and occasional rifts within it Then it is a landlocked country completely surrounded by South Africa on which it depends heavily Economically it has not been doing particularly well this partly because the country is so poorly endowed by nature and its people often eke out a living abroad Politically there have been ups and downs the downs fortunately lying in the past with Lesotho doing somewhat better since the latest elections Socially and culturally as hinted it is quite unique and this can be gathered from reading the book This second edition of Historical Dictionary of Lesotho covers the full scope of Lesotho's ancient colonial and independence eras It gives greater emphasis to the more recent period and brings the book fully up to date This is done through a chronology an introductory essay appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 400 cross referenced entries on civil society key events leaders governmental international religious and other private organizations policies political movements and parties economic elements and many other areas that have shaped the country's trajectory This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Lesotho Historical Dictionary of Lesotho John Aerni-Flessner, Charles Fogelman, Nthabiseng Mokoena-Mokhali, 2023-11-30 Lesotho's history has long been defined by its enclave status within South Africa but it is a hard fought and hard won status that helps unite Basotho through the shared history of struggle against colonial rule in the region Since the end of apartheid in 1994 Lesotho's status as a separate entity has been called into question though the fierce national pride built through centuries of resistance to outside rule has mitigated against any serious discussions of incorporating Lesotho into South Africa Still the political instability and lack of a flourishing domestic economy have made life difficult for the majority of Basotho and could call into question the viability and legitimacy of the state in the eyes of its citizens if it cannot enact significant reforms in the coming decades Historical Dictionary of Lesotho Third Edition contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has more than 500 cross referenced entries on important personalities as well as aspects of the country s politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Lesotho The Edinburgh University Calendar University of Edinburgh,1921 The Government and Administration of Africa, 1880-1939 Vol 5 Casper Anderson,Andrew Cohen,2017-07-05 This collection makes available rare sources on the aims functions and effects of British administration in Africa Topics examined include land and urban administration law and jurisprudence taxation and administration of natural resources Report for 1914 Lovedale Missionary Institution,1915 Fort Hare 1915-48: the Evolution of an African College Alexander Kerr,1968 Lesotho Christian Handbook, 1992-93 ,1992 Z.K. Matthews Susan Du Rand,1993 This series honours the lives of southern African leaders who helped shape the history of the region The books include activities for exploration in the classroom Class and Consciousness Alan G. Cobley,1990-05-21 This is the first book to discuss the emergence and nature of the black bourgeoisie in South Africa in its historical context as a class in itself and for itself It reveals how by the 1920s the black petty bourgeoisie was emerging in South Africa through the process of capitalist development out of pre existing elites and out of new elites based mainly in the new industrial centers The book then discusses how the black petty bourgeoisie deployed in the 1930s a wide range of class specific social and cultural networks using forms borrowed from the dominant classes as a means of entrenching and reproducing its class position The book details the significant differentiation within the black petty bourgeoisie revealing it to be divided into a more economically secure upper stratum and a much larger lower stratum which was always vulnerable to proletarianisation The book also shows that members of the petty black bourgeoisie virtually monopolized political leadership in black communities up to 1950 and beyond This had very important consequences for the formulation and articulation of black political objectives at both the local and national levels and especially for the developing African nationalist movement Uitgawes Van Die Van Riebeeck-Vereniging ,2012 Financial and Economic Position of Basutoland Great Britain. Commission on Financial and Economic Position of Basutoland,1935 Annual Report Lesotho. Ministry of Health,1987 *Lesotho ...
