Handbook of Research on Empowering Early Childhood Educators With Technology Burris, Jade, Rosen, Dina, Karno, Donna, 2021-06-18 Computers and mobile technologies have become widely adopted as sought after tools in the field of education. The prevalence of technology in early childhood education (ECE) is increasing and teachers both pre-service and in-service are using best practices to integrate tools effectively to improve teaching and learning within the field. This includes settings such as childcare centers, family childcare, and community programs that have both educators and administrators adapting to the use of technology. Therefore, it has become critical to research and explore the best practices of technology integration and successful strategies to improve the use of technology in ECE. The Handbook of Research on Empowering Early Childhood Educators With Technology examines best practices that focus specifically on those that facilitate the development of competencies in teaching young children (birth to age 8) and technology integration. The chapters include information on the foundations of technology in early childhood education, content specific technology applications, developmentally appropriate practices (DAP) for learners using technology, and how to meet diverse learner needs with technology The target audience for this book is early childhood professionals teacher educators pre and in service teachers in early childhood settings faculty and researchers in the field of education instructional technologists childcare and elementary school administrators early education policy organizations and advocacy groups that are interested in the best practices and successful strategies for implementing technology in ECE Exploring Key Issues in Early Childhood and Technology Chip Donohue,2019-07-04 Exploring Key Issues in Early Childhood and Technology offers early childhood allies both in the classroom and out a cutting edge overview of the most important topics related to technology and media use in the early years In this powerful resource international experts share their wealth of experience and unpack complex issues into a collection of accessibly written essays This text is specifically geared towards practitioners looking for actionable information on screen time cybersafety makerspaces coding computational thinking STEM AI and other core issues related to technology and young children in educational settings Influential thought leaders draw on their own experiences and perspectives addressing the big ideas opportunities and challenges around the use of technology and digital media in early childhood Each chapter provides applications and inspiration concluding with essential lessons learned actionable next steps and a helpful list of recommended further reading and resources This book is a must read for anyone looking to explore what we know and what we still need to know about the intersection between young children technology and media in the digital age Full

STEAM Ahead Cherie P. Pandora,Kathy Fredrick,2017-10-03 This book is a toolkit for youth and young adult librarians school and public who wish to incorporate science technology engineering art and math STEAM into their programs and collections but aren't sure where to begin Most educators are well aware of the reasons for emphasizing STEAM topics that fall within the broad headings of science technology engineering arts and mathematics in the curriculum regardless of grade level But how do librarians who work with tweens in middle school high school and public libraries fit into the picture and play their roles to underscore their relevance in making STEAM initiatives successful This book answers those key questions providing program guidelines and resources for each of the STEAM areas Readers will learn how to collaborate in STEAM efforts by providing information on resources activities standards conferences museums programs and professional organizations Emphasis is placed on encouraging girls and minorities to take part in and get excited about STEAM In addition the book examines how makerspaces can enhance this initiative how to connect your programs to educational standards where to find funding how to effectively promote your resources and programs including how school and public librarians can collaborate to maximize their efforts how to find and provide professional development and how to evaluate your program to make further improvements and boost effectiveness Whether you are on the cusp of launching a STEAM initiative or looking for ways to grow and enhance your program this book will be an invaluable resource Remaking America Joe Soss,Jacob S. Hacker,Suzanne Mettler,2007-11-08 Over the past three decades the contours of American social economic and political life have changed dramatically The post war patterns of broadly distributed economic growth have given way to stark inequalities of income and wealth the GOP and its allies have gained power and shifted U S politics rightward and the role of government in the lives of Americans has changed fundamentally Remaking America explores how these trends are related investigating the complex interactions of economics politics and public policy Remaking America explains how the broad restructuring of government policy has both reflected and propelled major shifts in the character of inequality and democracy in the United States The contributors explore how recent political and policy changes affect not just the social standing of Americans but also the character of democratic citizenship in the United States today Lawrence Jacobs shows how partisan politics public opinion and interest groups have shaped the evolution of Medicare but also how Medicare itself restructured health politics in America Kimberly Morgan explains how highly visible tax policies created an opportunity for conservatives to lead a grassroots tax revolt that ultimately eroded of the revenues needed for social welfare programs Deborah Stone explores how new policies have redefined participation in the labor force as opposed to fulfilling family or civic obligations as the central criterion of citizenship Frances Fox Piven explains how low income women remain creative and vital political actors in an era in which welfare programs increasingly subject them to stringent behavioral requirements and monitoring Joshua Guetzkow and Bruce Western document the rise of mass incarceration in America and illuminate its unhealthy effects on state social policy efforts and the civic status of African American men For many disadvantaged Americans who used to look to government as a source of opportunity and security the state has become increasingly paternalistic and punitive Far from standing alone their experience reflects a broader set of political victories and policy revolutions that have fundamentally altered American democracy and society Empirically grounded and theoretically informed Remaking America connects the dots to provide insight into the remarkable social and political changes of the last three decades

The iPINIONS Journal Anthony Livingston Hall, 2014-03-04 ANTHONY L HALL takes aim at the global events of 2013 with a unique and refreshing perspective Here are some of the topics he addresses Public outrage over NSA spying There s no rationalizing their outrage over the NSA monitoring their promiscuous and indiscriminate footprints online and via telephone For evidently these nincompoops think it s okay for Google Amazon Yahoo Facebook and others to spy on them to sell them stuff but not okay for the NSA to do so to keep them safe National praise NBA player Jason Collins got for coming out His courageous stand is somewhat undermined by the fact that he waited to take it on his way out of the league Women who d rather pose nude than be caught without makeup Who would ve thought the liberation inherent in the sexual revolution and feminist movement would devolve into a self abnegating farce where women themselves consider it a brave decision to go out in public without makeup Mediterranean Sea becoming a graveyard for Africans migrants I just hope the damning irony is not lost on any proud African that 50 years after decolonization hundreds of Africans men women and children are risking their lives practically every day to subjugate themselves to the paternal mercies of their former colonial masters in Europe Pope rebuking church for neglecting poor Nothing indicates how far
