Christian Ecclesia A Course of Lectures on the Early History and Early Conceptions of the Ecclesia and One Sermon This book consists in the first place of a course of lectures delivered by Dr Hort as Lady Margaret Professor in the Michaelmas Terms of 1888 and 1889 on The Early History and the Early Conceptions of the Christian Ecclesia The plan of the lectures is the same as that of the Lectures on Judaistic Christianity They contain a careful survey of the evidence to be derived from the literature of the Apostolic age for the solution of a fundamental problem The title Ecclesia was chosen as the opening lecture explains expressly for its freedom from the distracting associations which have gathered round its more familiar synonyms It is in itself a sufficient indication of the spirit of genuine historical enquiry in which the study was undertaken The original scheme included an investigation into the evidence of the early Christian centuries and the book is therefore in one sense no doubt incomplete About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
