The guide the author wishes she had when she took on a caretaker role By 2020 the senior population in this country will number over 115 million Despite this persistent graying of America few adult children feel prepared to take on the role of caregiver for aging parents Those who discover they must now intervene and care for an elder they love are often at a loss Trying to navigate the transition is like being dropped in a foreign country with no map no GPS and no translator and acting as tour guide Nancy Parker Brummett knows what they re going through and has the means to help She shares her own experience of caring for a mother and mother in law in assisted living as well as lessons learned through study of the academic social and political issues involved Each chapter begins with relevant Scripture but the useful information here is not limited to people of faith Take My Hand Again offers readers the warm feeling of having someone they trust stepping up to hold their hand and share encouragement and hope Children of the aging don't need a degree in gerontology they just need for someone to ask the pertinent questions and give them an overview of the pros and cons of common options so they can make informed decisions Whether they've already had their wake up call or just want to be prepared for what's to come Brummett's sometimes humorous sometimes poignant book has just what they're looking for

A Gospel for the Mature Years Harold G Koenig, 2013-04-15 There's good news for middle aged and older adults who wish to grow emotionally and spiritually and experience satisfaction and joy in their mature years regardless of circumstance health or age A Gospel for the Mature Years shows you how to achieve joy and fulfillment by developing a deep personal intimate relationship with God recognizing your God given gifts and using your abilities in service to others Our later years are not meant to be a time for idleness and withdrawal from life Rather this is an exciting meaningful and action packed time when we should grab hold of life and live it fully advancing God's kingdom in our families communities and nation Meant both for individual reading and for use in churches as a workbook for small discussion groups A Gospel for the Mature Years is arranged to facilitate use in classes running on a calendar quarter of 13 Sundays Questions for discussion at the end of each chapter have been designed to encourage individual preparation for participation in the group Specific topics you learn about include emotional growth and spiritual development achievement of well being and fulfillment achieving Christian maturity preventing depression counseling and caregiving using one's gifts and talents overcoming barriers to loving and serving others avoiding burnout and exhaustion when loving and serving others These are increasingly difficult times requiring that God's people work together by utilizing their talents for the benefit of others The authors make clear that the call to service does not end with retirement We can use this inspirational book to identify our gifts and learn how to best use them in service to God and others A Gospel for the Mature Years will help us produce a society of people with vision a vision of hope that life can have meaning and purpose regardless of circumstance and of faith that every person has been given a gift that will enable them to make a difference in this world and make it a better place for their children and grandchildren
