Montgomery, 2019-01-21 The ramifications of the trans Saharan trans Atlantic Indian Ocean and domestic African slave trades are immeasurable and they continue to disaffect black people from Africa to Haiti and Los Angeles to Lagos Shackled Sentiments focuses on the memories and embodiments of slavery through case studies from western eastern and central Africa the Caribbean and Latin America The contributors to this collection examine the ways that memories of slavery have been internalized Slavery and memory are assessed from multiple perspectives as sets of ritual practices community based systems of spirit veneration mechanisms of resistance and national pride sacred languages informing personhood and instruments for healing and well being This book is recommended for scholars of anthropology history religion art and linguistics      Bonds of Empire Lee B. Wilson, 2021-07-22 Bonds of Empire presents an account of slave law that is entirely new one in which English law imbued plantation slavery with its staying power even as it insulated slave owners from contemplating the moral implications of owning human beings Emphasizing practice rather than proscription the book follows South Carolina colonists as they used English law to maximize the value of the people they treated as property Doing so reveals that most daily legal practices surrounding slave ownership were derived from English law colonists categorized enslaved people as property using English legal terms they bought and sold them with printed English legal forms and they followed English legal procedures as they litigated over enslaved people in court Bonds of Empire ultimately shows that plantation slavery and the laws that governed it were not beyond the pale of English imperial legal history they were yet another invidious manifestation of English law's protean potential Hispanic Journal of Behavioral Sciences ,2008-05 Atlantis ,2007 Caribbean Abstracts Koninklijk Instituut voor Taal-, Land- en Volkenkunde (Netherlands).
