De Carles' Trial and Death of Queen Anne Boleyn Margaret Bolton, 2015-11-30 The sudden fall and brutal execution of Queen Anne Boleyn in 1536 was an event which startled contemporaries Present in London at the time was a young French priest named Lancelot de Carles who composed an account of the event His work tells of Anne s youth spent in France her romance with Henry VIII the birth of Elizabeth I and tells how the shocking accusations against her came to be made It describes public reaction to the events what happened at the trials of Anne and her alleged lovers and what took place on the scaffold Made available for the first time in modern English this volume presents the entire text of Lancelot de Carles work together with an introduction which seeks to put it in context with Anglo French politics at the time A Weak Woman in a Strong Battle Jennifer Lillian Lodine-Chaffey, 2022-08-30 The reception of women s speeches Jennifer Lodine Chaffey argues depended on their performances of accepted female behaviors and words as well as physical signs of interior regeneration Indeed when women presented themselves or were represented as behaving in stereotypically feminine and virtuous ways they were able to offer limited critiques of their fraught positions in society The first part of this study investigates the early modern execution including the behavioral expectations for condemned individuals the medieval tradition that shaped the ritual and the gender specific ways English authorities legislated and carried out women s executions Depictions of the female body are the focus of the second part of the book The executed woman s body Lodine Chaffey contends functioned as a text scrutinized by witnesses and readers for markers of innocence or guilt Charles Knight's Popular History of England Charles Knight, 1547 History of Two Queens William Hepworth Dixon, 1874 The New Werner Twentieth Century Edition of the Encyclopaedia Britannica , 1906 History of Two Queens. Anne Boleyn William Hepworth Dixon, 1874 The Manual of Dates: A Dictionary of Reference to the most important Events in the History of Mankind to be found in authentic Records George Henry Townsend, 2021-10-29 Reprint of the original first published in 1867 The Manual of Dates: a Dictionary of Reference to the Most Important Events in the History of Mankind George Henry Townsend, 1874 Sixteenth, seventeenth and eighteenth centuries Israel Smith Clare, 1893 Lying in Early Modern English Culture Andrew Hadfield, 2017-09-01 Lying in Early Modern English Culture is a major study of ideas of truth and falsehood in early modern England from the advent of the Reformation to the aftermath of the failed Gunpowder Plot The period is characterised by panic and chaos when few had any idea how religious cultural and social life would develop after the traumatic division of Christendom While many saw the need for a secular power to define the truth others declared that their allegiances belonged elsewhere Accordingly there was a constant battle between competing authorities for the right to declare what was the truth and so label opponents as liars Issues of truth and lying were therefore a constant feature of everyday life and determined ideas of individual identity politics speech sex marriage and social behaviour as well as philosophy and religion This book is a cultural history of truth and lying from the

1530s to the 1610s showing how lying needs to be understood in action as well as in theory Unlike most histories of lying it concentrates on a series of particular events reading them in terms of academic theories and more popular notions of lying The book covers a wide range of material such as the trials of Ann Boleyn and Thomas More the divorce of Frances Howard and the murder of Anthony James by Annis and George Dell works of literature such as Othello The Faerie Queene A Mirror for Magistrates and The Unfortunate Traveller works of popular culture such as the herring pamphlet of 1597 and major writings by Castiglione Montaigne Erasmus Luther and Tyndale
