Music and Coexistence Osseily Hanna, 2014-12-11 Music and Coexistence: A Journey across the World in Search of Musicians Making a Difference is both study and travelogue as author Osseily Hanna explores the courageous work of musicians who compose and perform with their ostensible enemies or in extraordinary social situations. He documents the political and economic constraints faced by musicians from the wall that encloses a refugee camp in Jerusalem to the tensions among KFOR and Carabinieri peacekeepers who keep Serbs and Kosovar Albanians apart to the cultural and linguistic suppression that afflicts minority communities in Turkey. A multilingual musician, Hanna examines the lives of the individuals and groups at the forefront of the effort to bridge ethnic, cultural and religious divisions. Featuring musicians from thirteen different countries and territories across five continents, Hanna's story includes a remarkable cadre of performers such as the musicians who comprise Heartbeat, a group of Israeli and Palestinian youth who compose, record and perform music together; the Albino musicians of Tanzania who regularly combat persecution by local shamans; the multiracial and thriving samba musicians in Sao Paulo; and a former child soldier from Cambodia who seeks to revive traditional music following the genocide in the 1970s. With photos taken by the author during his travels, this work is a unique contribution for those interested in world music and peace studies. This unique and remarkable work will open the eyes and the hearts of every musician and music lover who recognizes music as a universal language.
