Carpe Fucking Diem Elina Brotherus:

Elina Brotherus Elina Brotherus, 2015-11 A documentation of Elina Brotherus series Annunciation The series deals with a topic that is still very much a taboo that of involuntary childlessness With this work Elina Brotherus returns to the autobiographical documentary she became known for in the late 90s We follow her through times of alternating hope and deception with the intercepting calendar pages showing that yet another year has passed The Domestic Interior and the Self in Contemporary Photography Jane Simon, 2023-09-18 By carefully conceptualising the domestic in relation to the self and the photographic this book offers a unique contribution to both photography theory and criticism and life narrative studies Jane Simon brings together two critical practices into a new conversation arguing that artists who harness domestic photography can advance a more expansive understanding of the autobiographical Exploring the idea that self representation need not equate to self portraiture or involve the human form artists from around the globe are examined including Rinko Kawauchi Catherine Opie Dayanita Singh Moyra Davey and Elina Brotherus who maintain a personal gaze at domestic detail By treating the representation of interiors domestic objects and the very practice of photographic seeing and framing as autobiographical gestures this book reframes the relationship between interiors and exteriors public and private and insists on the importance of domestic interiors to understandings of the self and photography The book will be of interest to scholars working in photographic history and theory art history and visual studies Maternal Performance Lena Šimić, Emily

Underwood-Lee, 2021-11-27 Maternal Performance Feminist Relations bridges the fields of performance feminism maternal studies and ethics It loosely follows the life course with chapters on maternal loss pregnancy birth aftermath maintenance generations and futures Performance and the maternal have an affinity as both are lived through the body of the mother artist are played out in real time and are concerned with creating ethical relationships with an other be that other the child the theatrical audience or our wider communities The authors contend that maternal performance takes the largely hidden private and domestic work of mothering and makes it worthy of consideration and contemplation within the public sphere

Sites of Transformation Louise Ann Wilson, 2022-02-10 Shortlisted for the PQ Best Publication Award in Performance Design Scenography 2023 In this book practitioner and researcher Louise Ann Wilson examines the expanding field of socially engaged scenography and promotes the development of scenography as a distinctive type of applied art and performance practice that seeks tangible therapeutic and transformative real world outcomes It is what Christopher Baugh calls scenography with purpose Using case studies drawn from the body of site specific walking performances she has created in the UK since 2011 Wilson demonstrates how she uses scenography to emplace challenging marginalizing or missing life events into rural landscapes creating a site of transformation in which participants can reflect upon re image and re imagine their relationship to their circumstances Her work has addressed terminal illness and bereavement infertility and childlessness by circumstance and im mobility and memory These works have been created on mountains in caves along coastlines and over beaches Each case study is supported by evidential material demonstrating the effects and outcomes of the performance being discussed The book reveals Wilson s creative methodology her application of three distinct strands of transdisciplinary research into the site landscape the subject life event and with the people participants affected by it She explains the 7 scenographic principles she has developed and which apply theories and aesthetics relating to land scape art and walking and performance practices from Early Romanticism to the present day They are underpinned by the concept of the feminine material sublime and informed by the attentive autotopographic therapeutic and highly scenographic use of walking and landscape found in the work of Dorothy Wordsworth and her female contemporaries Case studies include Fissure 2011 Ghost Bird 2012 The Gathering 2014 Warnscale 2015 Mulliontide 2016 Dorothy s Room 2018 and Women s Walks to Remember With memory I was there 2018 2019

Photography, A Feminist History Emma Lewis, 2021-10-26

This feminist retelling of the history of photography puts women in the picture and more importantly behind the camera In ten thematic chronological sections Tate Modern curator Emma Lewis explores the vital role women artists have played in shaping the ever evolving medium of photography Lewis has compiled work from more than 200 different women and nonbinary photographers along with short essays on 75 different artists many informed by her interviews with the subjects From the studio portraiture of the late nineteenth century to the photojournalism of Dorothea Lange and Lee Miller in the early twentieth and from second wave feminist critiques of gender roles to contemporary selfies and social media personae this volume examines different genres styles and approaches to photography from the 1800s to the present UNPARALLELED IN SCOPE International inclusive and intersectional this comprehensive volume tells the story of a versatile and innovative medium From early twentieth century self portraits responding to modernity and changing notions of womanhood to photojournalistic images documenting the climate crisis the photographs in this book demonstrate the varied ways that women respond to and shape the global cultural landscape The artists profiled here include Sheila Pree Bright Imogen Cunningham Paz Err zuriz Nan Goldin Kati Horna Mari Katayama Dora Maar Lee Miller Tina Modotti Zanele Muholi Shirin Neshat Cindy Sherman Lieko Shiga Lorna Simpson Amalia Ulman And more INSIGHTFULLY ORGANIZED The thematic chapters of this project showcase photography s changing role in society and art They allow the author to explore and contextualize how this role has or hasn t made space for women and people of marginalized genders and how the work done on the margins of the medium pushes the boundaries of technology and creative expression This is not simply a collection of women photographers it s a book about how and why women and nonbinary artists have used photography to respond to and shape their own realities Perfect for Photographers artists and students and art lovers Anyone interested in the history of photography Intersectional feminists Trailblazing women and the people who love and support them Elina Brotherus ,2000 Elina Brotherus ,2001
