Carlo Mollino Arabesques:

Carlo Mollino Carlo Mollino, 2006 Focusing on Mollino's furniture and interior design this text also showcases his incredible passion for photography providing a comprehensive overview of his creativity and versatile talents Carlo Mollino: Arabesques, 2007 Carlo Mollino Carlo Mollino, Nairy Baghramian, 2011 Maniera Moderna is dedicated to the multi-faceted work of the Italian architect, designer and photographer Carlo Mollino 1905-1973 His surrealist roots are evident in the black and white photography and interiors of the 1930s right through to his later work in the elegant Teatro Regio and his highly staged erotic Polaroids However he was also inspired to create the most individual of designs by the Futurism of Gaudí, Niemeyer and Le Corbusier His extravagant furniture which he produced in limited numbers or as unique pieces is still extremely sought after It is an expression of the designer's extraordinary flights of fancy chairs can look like deer the ribs of a table like the human spinal column backrests like skis This monograph is divided into six chapters choreography montage publications display appropriations and techniques which impressively highlight the correspondences within Mollino's wide-ranging and heterogeneous oeuvre Interior Design Masters Mark Hinchman, Elyssa Yoneda, 2018-06-27 Interior Design Masters contains 300 biographical entries of people who have significantly impacted design They are the people historical and contemporary that students and practitioners should know Coverage starts in the late Renaissance with a focus on the twentieth and twenty-first centuries The book has five sections with the entries alphabetical in each so it can serve as a history textbook and a reference guide The seventeenth and eighteenth-century section covers figures from Thomas Chippendale to Horace Walpole The nineteenth-century section includes William Morris and Candace Wheeler The early twentieth-century section presents modernism's design heroes including Marcel Breuer, Eileen Gray and Gilbert Rohde The post-World War II designers range from Madeleine Castaing to Raymond Loewy The final contemporary section includes Ron Arad and the Bouroullec brothers These are the canonical figures who belong to any design history The book also contains less well-known figures who deserve attention such as Betty Joel the British art deco furniture designer Paul Veyseyre the Frenchman active in China in the 1930s and more recently Lanzavecchia Wai the Italian-Singaporean duo whose work ranges from health care to helicopters Global in its coverage the book is richly illustrated with over 600 black and white and color photographs Key Interiors since 1900 Graeme Brooker, 2013-09-23 This book defines the history of modern interior design through the reuse of existing buildings This approach allows the history of the interior to be viewed as separate from the history of architecture and instead enables the interior to develop its own historical narrative The book is organized around six thematic chapters: home, work, retail, display, leisure and culture Each one comprises a selection of case studies in chronological order 52 key examples dating from 1900 to the present are explored in terms of context, concept, organization and detail and are illustrated with photographs, plans, sections, concept drawings and sketches This unique history will be invaluable for students of interior architecture and design seeking a survey tailored especially for them as well as appealing to interested general readers Carlo Mollino Giovanni Brino, 2005

Digital Poetics Marjan Colletti, 2017-03-02 Digital Poetics celebrates the architectural design exuberance made possible by new digital modelling techniques and fabrication technologies By presenting an unconventional and original humanistic theory of CAD computer aided design the author suggests that beyond the generation of innovative engineering forms digital design has the potential to affect the wider complex cultural landscape of today in profound ways The book is organised around a synthetic and hybrid research methodology a contemporary propositional and theoretical discursive investigation and a design led empirical research Both methods inform a critical construct that deals with the nature forms and laws of digitality within a contemporary architectural discourse that affects practice and academia The chapters spiral at from towards around outside inwards and back inside out digitality its cognitive phenomena spatial properties and intrinsic capabilities to achieve or at least approach Digital Poetics The book presents speculative and small scale constructed projects that pioneer techniques and experiments with common 3D and 4D software packages whereby the focus lies not on the drawing processes and mechanics but on the agency and impact the image its reading experience interpretation achieves on the reader and observer The book also features a preface by Fr d ric Migayrou a philosopher and curator and one of the most influential cultural engineers of the contemporary international architectural scene The book is linked to a website which contains a larger selection of images of some featured projects Surreal Things Victoria and Albert

Museum, 2007-05-15 Surreal Things is the first book to examine in depth the influence of Surrealism on the wider fields of design and the decorative arts and its sometimes uneasy relationship with the commercial world In Parts I and II the work of artists and designers such as Hans Jean Arp Alexander Calder Max Ernst Rene Magritte Joan Miro Meret Oppenheim Man Ray and Elsa Schiaparelli provides the means to explore Surrealism s relationship with the material world while 45 star objects are given particular consideration in Part III The range of objects covered in this book spans painting sculpture works on paper jewellery ceramics textiles furniture fashion film and photography

Country Architecture in the Upper Aosta Valley Napoleone Ferrari, Carlo Mollino, 2007 Everything is permissible as long as it is fantastic Carlo Mollino once said accurately describing his attitude towards design and architecture Known as one of the most versatile architects of the twentieth century Mollino an amazing sportsman and inspiring creative force in many fields designed a 23 apartment Modernist ski chalet called Casa del Sole House of the Sun in Cevinia Italy in 1947 It is a perfect example of the lively complexity typical of his work This beautifully produced clothbound volume with a tipped on cover image develops as a sort of architectural novel including drawings photographs and writings by Mollino about the design and building process When it was built Casa del Sole proposed to create modern yet economic housing that would help develop tourism in the Italian Alps after the Second World War an extremely difficult period in that country s history The architecturally sophisticated building was furnished very minimally and pushed the conceptual vanguard of the time with its pared down lines and use of basic industrial building materials Later the penthouse of the building was inhabited by the famous Austrian skier Leo Gasperl the fastest man in the sport between 1932 and 1947 Mollino also a passionate skier an instructor and the author of a 334 page manual on ski technique dreamed of a functional disciplined building for the sportsman a Modernist concrete structure utilizing the traditional stone and wood constructions of northern Italy L'étrange univers de l'architecte Carlo
