

Overview

City of Dysthane is a 2011 middle-grade novel by Newbery Medal-winning author Avi. Set on the Lower East Side of New York City in 1893, it centers on 13-year-old Mako Celene, who works as a newsie to provide for the needs of his immigrant family. When Mako's sister is jailed for theft, he is tasked with gathering clues to help save her.

Plot Summary

Mako spends his days selling papers with his newsie friends and traveling through New York City dodging the filth and crime of the industrialized urban life. Until now, his most formidable foe has been red-headed bully Bruno and his Plug Ugly Gang. Attempting to outrun the gang, he trips over a young orphan girl named Wills living in an alley. Taking her home for a hot meal, Mako discovers he has more to worry about than just the Plug Ugly waiting for him on the street corner. His sister Emma has been accused of stealing a valuable watch at the Waldorf Hotel, where she works as a maid. Mako and his immigrant family live on slim margins as it is and have no spare money to pay for a lawyer, so it will be up to Mako to find a way to prove her innocence.

With his newfound friend Wills and her bully club by his side, he sets out to find someone in the city to aid him in unravelling the details of the theft. They find Bartleby Conck, a former detective turned social justice warrior, in a dingy apartment flat very clearly suffering from end-stage tuberculosis. Conck struggles to even hear them but agrees to help sleuth out the truth. Meanwhile, the children must constantly dodge Plug Uglies waiting to pounce on them. Though Wills is happy to have a full belly and roof over her head, she is unsure about this new path her life has taken, and she will have to beat back the trauma of her past to help Mako save his sister and become a part of the Celene family forever.

While working tirelessly to find clues to help his sister, Mako must also manage his family. His father and mother lack the skills to navigate edgy American city life and are nostalgic for their home base in Denmark. Mako's younger brothers adore him, and he must work to keep a cool head around the house so as not to further frighten them. Emma is not the only Celene daughter in trouble. The younger Agnes is trying and failing to hide symptoms of consumption. Once again, the family's financial woes prevent Agnes from receiving treatment, and her cough worsens daily.
