Client Education: Theory and Practice Mary A. Miller, Pamella Rae Stoeckel, 2024-11-15 Client Education Theory and Practice Fourth Edition teaches nursing students the important skills of patient education and health promotion. The authors use their unique Miller Stoeckel Client Education Model as the organizing framework to emphasize the importance of the Nurse-Client Relationship and how this relationship is paramount to the success of client education. They focus on the key role that nurses play in educating individuals, families, and groups in clinical settings. The updated Fourth Edition addresses the need for health education in nursing by covering the learning process and discussing the needs of clients across the age span. The authors' thoughtful revision includes updated statistics on chronic diseases and new data on generations Z and Alpha. Furthermore, they teach students how to work with culturally diverse populations by presenting specific teaching approaches.
