Patricia Campbell's life has never felt smaller. Her husband is a workaholic her teenage kids have their own lives her senile mother in law needs constant care and she's always a step behind on her endless to do list. The only thing keeping her sane is her book club a close knit group of Charleston women united by their love of true crime. One evening after book club Patricia is viciously attacked by an elderly neighbor bringing the neighbor's handsome nephew James Harris into her life. James is well traveled and well read and he makes Patricia feel things she hasn't felt in years. But when children on the other side of town go missing their deaths written off by local police Patricia has reason to believe James Harris is more of a Bundy than a Brad Pitt. The real problem James is a monster of a different kind and Patricia has already invited him in.
