Checklist to FI

If you have any form of financial goal - such as getting your debt free, saving for retirement, or buying a house - this checklist will help you get there.

This is the freedom of being able to do what you want to do.

Independence of where you want to live, financial freedom from stress that becomes your only worry because you have it.

Use this list to review if financial independence what areas to focus on that way.

This list may be used to organize it too:

1. Print all income pages as you like, or use a pdf including both the FI in Income sheet specifically, a bank savings for placing all pages in a folder for every year, and a personal and paper financial organizer like one.
2. Look over the table of contents.
3. See where you are in your personal finance journey and which www.steppingstonesfi.com pages you need to print out, or you may need to skip some pages, and which ones you don't need.
4. Print out these pages for your comprehensive financial organization. These can be helpful when you are trying to organize your life and have all documents organized in your files or folder.
5. Make a book, an other form of organization, if there is a commanding thing you want to do with the organization you prefer to make it simple, understanding of other concepts, print with lined books or like you can check off and other sections out for you to use.

Monthly Budget Worksheet

Once you have tracked your finances and have an understanding of the income coming in and spending going out, it's time to create a budget.

This is where you will review all expense categories
