Fashion Communication in the Digital Age Paula von Wachenfeldt, Lorenzo Cantoni, Nadzeya Sabatini, Teresa Sádaba, 2025-11-18 This open access book presents papers from the fourth bi annual FACTUM Fashion Communication Conference, a leading reference event in the field of fashion communication. As one of the few academic gatherings of its kind worldwide, the conference explores fashion communication from diverse perspectives. The proceedings feature contributions from scholars specializing in communication and marketing management, digital transformation, cultural heritage and other related disciplines. These proceedings aim to foster interdisciplinary theoretical and empirical research on the impact of communication practices on both the fashion industry and societal fashion related values and behaviors. Specifically, they seek to establish and strengthen an international interdisciplinary network of scholars in the field of fashion communication, share innovative methodological approaches, expand the dialogue between communication studies and fashion related disciplines, and encourage junior researchers to pursue their academic interests in this dynamic field. Additionally, this book serves as a valuable resource for professionals in fashion communication and marketing, providing access to rigorous research in a rapidly evolving domain driven by digital transformation.

Don't Know What You've Got Till It's Gone Gemma Crisp, 2014-01-01 After surviving a less than ideal start as a hot shot editor, Nina Morey has picked herself up, shaken herself off and is back ready to do deals with the devil in her job as editor of Juice one of Australia's hottest weekly celebrity gossip magazines. In the cutthroat world of weekly trash mags, Nina thrives on the adrenalin of outbidding her rivals for scandalous photo sets and having the most influential celebrity managers on speed dial. But in her personal life things aren't quite as glossy. Just as she's back on the single scene, all her friends start getting up the duff faster than you can say 'Welcome to Nappy Valley'. While Nina spends her days managing her magazine's multi-million-dollar budget and stalking Kim Kardashian's every move, they're stalking their local daycare waiting list. Suddenly she feels like she's being rejected from a club she doesn't even want to join. With a reality TV show in the works and a Facebook feed overflowing with endless baby updates, Nina heads to New York on an impromptu girls' trip to get away from it all, but little does she know that things are about to get a whole lot more complicated.

REESE'S BOOK CLUB PICK A heartwarming and emotionally poignant time-loop novel about a stressed woman who must relive the same day over and over, keeping her family and work life from imploding as she attempts to change the course of her life. Dan is Emma's person. She's known it since the first time she saw him dressed in lederhosen on the tube. On their fifteen-year dateversary, Emma texts a list of everything she should have told Dan that morning. Tell the kids to remember their homework. And their gloves. Can you defrost some sausages? Emma just forgets to write the most important words of all: I love you. And by the end of the day, everything changes. Or does it? Emma is given the chance to rewrite their future if she can just figure out their past.
