The Seeds of Toby Donovan Bailey, LSW, EDD, 2025-05-06 Why is there continued racial disparity within the American criminal justice system Is it a natural propensity for crime Is it a racist criminal justice system Is it a culture of poverty Is it the war on drugs Is it dysfunctional family structures Is it choices Is it economics Is it spiritual issues Is it a lack of education Is it mental health Is it identity Among the various issues within crime and punishment and the fact that African Americans and other minorities disproportionately engulf the prisons jails and probation caseloads why is it that so many are in the criminal justice system and continue to be at rates that continuously plague American communities How about the aspects of historical trauma and improper identity paradigms How about the fact that criminality has become normality How about the old biblical adage that as a man thinks so is he There is a cultural identity crisis in many that frequent the criminal justice system and amid the various efforts to correct and change behavior address therapeutic measures and ensure that the criminal justice system yields evidence based practices and strength based treatment modalities The system sadly lacks the cultural competence that would change The New Jim Crow and the face of crime in America As much as activism and advocacy have rightfully focused on the racist aspects of a criminal justice system that has improperly and historically overloaded the system the movement must be more thorough after generations of minorities were incarcerated and overwhelmed by the collateral consequences of imprisonment There must be a more in depth focus on keeping minorities out of the system breaking a historical trauma that has grown over centuries The system must incorporate ethnocentric treatment components focused on changing identity paradigms What would that mean and why is this important

Culture is not an industry Justin O'Connor,2024-02-27 Culture is at the heart to what it means to be human But twenty five years ago the British government rebranded art and culture as creative industries valued for their economic contribution and set out to launch the UK as the creative workshop of a globalised world Where does that leave art and culture now Facing exhausted workers and a lack of funding and vision culture finds itself in the grip of accountancy firms creativity gurus and Ted Talkers At a time of sweeping geo political turmoil culture has been de politicised its radical energies reduced to factors of industrial production This book is about what happens when an essential part of our democratic citizenship fundamental to our human rights is reduced to an industry Culture is not an industry argues that art and culture need to renew their social contract and re align with the radical agenda for a more equitable future Bold and uncompromising the book offers a powerful vision for change

The Russia-Ukraine Conflict Kornél Vendégly,2024-08-20 Since World War I America has been aspiring to extend its sphere of influence over the Eurasian landmass in line with McKinder s Heartland theory which has been shaping American foreign policy and global politics ever since The two major powers standing in the way were and are Russia and China The bipolar world order based on America and the Soviet Union that emerged after World War II kept America s aspirations in check for about half a century until the dissolution of the Soviet Union in 1991 During this period America extended NATO over most of Western Europe With the Soviet Union succeeded by an initially weak Russia America remained the only superpower and used NATO to further extend its influence By 2020 NATO expanded to most of Eastern Europe and the Balkans presenting a growing threat to Russia The next big target was Ukraine In 2014 America orchestrated the toppling of Russia leaning President Yanukovich and installed a neo Nazi government This resulted in widespread demonstrations against it massacres took place in Russian speaking cities Crimea seceded and Donetsk and Luhansk declared themselves autonomous republics The government declared the demonstrators terrorists and bombed its eastern regions for 8 years When president Zelensky decided to subdue the Donbass by military force the two Donbass republics requested Russia s help and on 24 February 2022 Russian troops entered the Donbass This was the beginning of the SMO Russia s Special Military Operation to protect Ukraine's Russian speaking population against the civil war waged against them by their own government since 2014. Media reporting on the conflict was and is highly biased and selective, presenting an image often at odds with facts and crucial details needed to understand what is happening and why. This book tries to complete the picture.
