Increasingly those who can control their emotions, empathize, and relate well to other people will do well. Taking a workbook approach, this book shows you how to apply this theory to all aspects of your life. Eight Essential Techniques for Teaching with Intention Ann Lewin-Benham, 2015-06-14 In her latest book, bestselling author Ann Lewin Benham describes eight techniques that foster intentional and reflective classroom practice. She presents over 70 novel exercises to help teachers learn to use body, face, hands, voice, eyes, and word choices to precisely convey meaning. Some exercises are for teachers to practice while others build intention and reflection in children. Dozens of scenarios from typical classroom situations contrast unintentional and intentional teaching behaviors. A self-assessment enables teachers to measure how intentional and reflective they become as they learn to use the eight techniques. This lively and often humorous resource is a companion to Lewin Benham's Twelve Best Practices for Early Childhood Education which explains what to teach and why. This new book explains how to teach. Working With Alienated Children and Families Amy J. L. Baker, S. Richard Sauber, 2013-02-11 This edited volume is written by and for mental health professionals who work directly with alienated children and their parents. The chapters are written by leaders in the field, all of whom know how vexing parental alienation can be for mental health professionals. No matter how the professional intersects with families affected by alienation, be it through individual treatment, reunification therapy, a school setting, or support groups, he or she needs to consider how to make proper assessments, how to guard against bias, and when and how to involve the court system among other challenges. The cutting-edge clinical interventions presented in this book will help professionals answer these questions and help them to help their clients. The authors present a range of clinical options such as parent education, psycho-educational programs for children, and reunification programs for children and parents that make this volume a useful reference and practical guide. Instructor's Manual for Reading Instruction Barbara D.
