Defining Your Side Hustle Goals and Objectives
First, you need to identify what you want to achieve with your side hustle. Your goals should be specific, measurable, achievable, relevant, and time-bound (SMART). For example, if you want to start a blog, your goal might be to write 10 posts in the next month. If you want to sell handmade crafts, your goal might be to sell 10 items at a local craft fair. Once you have your goals defined, you can start to plan your side hustle to achieve them.

Next, you need to identify the resources you'll need to achieve your goals. This might include equipment, software, or materials. You also need to consider your time commitment. If you're starting a side hustle, you'll need to set aside time each week to work on it. You might also need to invest in advertising or marketing to reach your target audience.
