Instruction of Students with Severe Disabilities Martha E. Snell, 1993 This is a comprehensive and current description of research based methods on teaching students with severe disabilities including students with autism and functional skill needs. A great reference book. Reflects 1997 IDEA in all chapters particularly those that deal with the topics of transition and families. Adds a chapter on peer social relationships. Creates and maintains reader interest with effective photographs, vignettes, specific charts and unique figures tables. Reinforces its comprehensive research base with current studies for educators and school administrators.

Social Relationships and Peer Support Rachel Janney, Martha E. Snell, 2006 Contains suggestions for fostering positive, mutually supportive relationships among students with and without disabilities in the inclusive classroom.

Place-Based Conservation William P. Stewart, Daniel R. Williams, Linda E. Kruger, 2013-01-11 The concept of Place has become prominent in natural resource management as professionals increasingly recognize the importance of scale, place specific meanings, local knowledge and social ecological dynamics. Place-Based Conservation Perspectives from the Social Sciences offers a thorough examination of the topic, dividing its exploration into four broad areas. Place-Based Conservation provides a comprehensive resource for researchers and practitioners to help build the conceptual grounding necessary to understand and to effectively practice place-based conservation.
