Roots in the Cotton Patch Kirk Lyman-Barner, Cori Lyman-Barner, 2014-07-11 In honor of what would have been Clarence Jordan's one hundredth birthday and the seventieth anniversary of Koinonia Farm the first Clarence Jordan Symposium convened in historic Sumter County Georgia in 2012 gathering theologians historians actors and activists in civil rights housing agriculture and fair trade businesses to celebrate a remarkable individual and his continuing influence Clarence Jordan 1912-1969 a farmer and New Testament Greek scholar was the author of the Cotton Patch versions of the New Testament and the founder of Koinonia Farm a small but influential religious community in southwest Georgia Roots in the Cotton Patch Volume 1 contains Symposium presentations addressing Clarence's influence as a storyteller and contextual preacher and prophet his pacifist witness in a violent and segregated South and the contemporary meaning of his life's work in Christian community Uniting these powerful essays is the obvious impact Jordan's life has had on so many His life and work continue to inspire a new generation of activists seminary students and people in search of the meaning of Christian community

Religion and Media in America Anthony Hatcher, 2018-05-25 Covering topics ranging from the Moral Monday movement to Christian films and performers Religion and Media in America is a qualitative study of the ways in which religion has been woven into American popular and civic culture This book explores how Christianity both adapts to and is affected by new media forms Its six chapters address religious activism government imposition of religiosity into secular culture religious entertainment Bible translations marketed as consumer goods and how religious satire comes from both religious and secular sources Recommended for scholars and students interested in media studies film studies religion communication American history American studies political science and popular culture

Notes from the Valley Andy McQuitty, 2014-12-11 At 2:58 PM on July 14, 2009 Andy McQuitty entered the valley of the shadow of death Andy his doctor said you have a massive tumor that has broken through the wall of your colon It's cancer It's serious Get in here now Hearing you have cancer does more than warn you of death It displaces you emotionally and spiritually as it did for Andy and the roughly 1.7 million cancer patients diagnosed in America annually Notes from the Valley gives you a window into their experience In the persona of a travel writer sending notes back from the desert Andy recounts his journey through stage IV cancer in which he discovered what King David did in his own valley that in suffering God's presence isn't diminished but magnified Written with humor and sensitivity Notes from the Valley is for anyone on this journey or traveling alongside a loved one who is It provides words of wisdom comfort as it addresses questions like Why did I get cancer Does God still love me Can I tell Him how I really feel Is it possible to suffer well Can any good come of this

The Cotton Patch Gospel: Paul's Epistles Clarence Jordan, 2004 The Cotton Patch Gospel recasts the stories of Jesus and the letters of Paul and Peter into the language of the mid 20th century South Born out of the Civil Rights struggle these now classic translations of much of the New Testament bring the far away places of Scripture closer to home Gainesville Selma Birmingham Atlanta Washington D C As Jordan once wrote While there have been many excellent translations of the Scriptures into modern English they still have left us stranded in the long distant past We need to have the good news come to us not only in our own tongue but in our own time We want to be participants in the faith not merely spectators

Damned Whiteness David F. Evans, 2025-10-02 The memory of the long civil rights movement often celebrates white men and women who drew on their religious faith to support Black demands for racial justice However the visions and actions of these leaders and their organizations often conflicted with those of Black leadership While Black activists fought for a broad vision of freedom white allies focused more narrowly on cultivating interracial friendship marching in parallel to Black movement leaders rather than alongside them Damned Whiteness offers an unflinching history of white led efforts at interracial organizing gone astray Considering the examples of Dorothy Day cofounder of the Catholic Worker Movement Clarence Jordan spiritual father of Habitat for Humanity and Ralph Templin a Christian missionary who studied nonviolence in Gandhi's India David F Evans reveals how religious white progressives inherited strategies that remained disconnected from the ideas and actions of Black communities These disconnects have often been cloaked as disagreements over religious doctrine and practice but Evans reveals how they stem from refusals to acknowledge Black leaders philosophies and freedom dreams Though these patterns persist Evans offers a way out of this legacy of white allyship and into a future where freedom is possible
