Women's Bible Commentary Carol Ann Newsom,Sharon H. Ringe,1998-01-01 In the critically acclaimed best seller Women s Bible Commentary an outstanding group of women scholars introduced and summarized each book of the Bible and commented on those sections of each book that have particular relevance to women focusing on female characters symbols life situations such as marriage and family the legal status of women and religious principles that affect relationships of women and men Now this expanded edition provides similar insights on the Apocrypha presenting a significant view of the lives and religious experiences of women as well as attitudes toward women in the

Second Temple period This expanded edition sets a new standard for women s and biblical studies Construction of Gender and Identity in Genesis Karalina Matskevich,2019-01-24 Karalina Matskevich examines the structures that map out the construction of gendered and national identities in Genesis 2 3 and 12 36 Matskevich shows how the dominant Subject the androcentric ha adam and the ethnocentric Israel is perceived in relation to and over against the Other represented respectively as female and foreign Using the tools of narratology semiotics and psychoanalysis Matskevich highlights the contradiction inherent in the project of dominance through which the Subject seeks to suppress the transforming power of difference it relies on for its signification Thus in Genesis 2 3 ha adam can only emerge as a complex Subject in possession of knowledge with the help of woman the transforming Other to whom the narrator and Yahweh attributes both the agency and the blame Similarly the narratives of Genesis 12 36 show a conflicted attitude to places of alterity Egypt the fertile and seductive space that threatens annihilation and Haran the mother s land a complex metaphor for the feminine The construction of identity in these narratives largely relies on the symbolic fecundity of the Other

Fighting Words Hector Avalos, Is religion inherently violent If not what provokes violence in the name of religion Do we mischaracterize religion by focusing too much on its violent side In this intriguing original study of religious violence Prof Hector Avalos offers a new theory for the role of religion in violent conflicts Starting with the premise that most violence is the result of real or perceived scarce resources Avalos persuasively argues that religion creates new scarcities on the basis of unverifiable or illusory criteria Through a careful analysis of the fundamental texts of Judaism Christianity Islam and Hinduism Dr Avalos explains how four scarce resources have figured repeatedly in creating religious violence sacred space e g the perception by three world religions that Jerusalem is sacred the creation of holy scriptures believed to be privileged revelations of God s will group privilege stemming from such beliefs as a chosen people or predestination which also creates a group of outsiders and salvation by which concept some are accepted and others rejected Thus Avalos shows religious violence is often the most unnecessary violence of all since the scarce resources over which religious conflicts ensue are not actually scarce or need not be scarce Comparing violence in religious and nonreligious contexts Avalos makes the compelling argument that if we condemn violence caused by scarce resources as morally objectionable then we must consider even more objectionable violence provoked by alleged scarcities that cannot be proven to exist He also examines the Nazi Holocaust and the Stalinist Terror which have been attributed to the pernicious effects of atheism or secular humanism By contrast Avalos pinpoints underlying religious factors as the cause of these horrific instances of genocidal violence This serious philosophical examination of the roots of religious violence adds much to our understanding of a perennial source of widespread human suffering Hector Avalos Ames IA is associate professor of Religious Studies at Iowa State University the author of five books on biblical studies and religion the former editor of the Journal for the Critical Study of Religion and executive director of the Committee for the Scientific Examination of Religion Literary-critical Approaches to the Bible Mark Minor,1996 One
