

The background of the cover is a classical painting. It depicts an angel with large, feathered wings and curly hair, wearing a brown robe with a green sleeve. The angel is leaning over a bearded man with long white hair, who is lying down. The angel's right hand is raised in a gesture, while the left hand rests on the man's chest. The scene is set in a dark, atmospheric environment.

Covenant & Conversation Jonathan Sacks, 2009 A Weekly Reading of the Jewish Bible      Faith Lies Darrell Smith, 2019-01-08 Faith Lies 7 Incomplete Ideas That Hijack Faith and How to See Beyond Them is for people noticing the cracks in the foundation of their faith as well as those who feel they have been hurt or discarded by a God or a faith that just does not make sense Faith lies are those seemingly required religious ideas or spiritual beliefs that are often confusing and rarely helpful

LIE 1 The Bible is the Literal Word of God The Bible is not the written record of God's dictation God was most certainly the inspiration for the Bible but not the medium People were the medium they did the storytelling the writing the selecting and the interpretation that resulted in the Bible The Bible is not God's Bill of Rights and Constitution Rather it is a divinely inspired story of progression that should open things up rather than constrict and regulate

LIE 2 God is Angry and Doesn't Like Me Especially When I Sin Instead of perceiving God as a loving parent many of us understand God as a cosmic scorekeeper intent on our purification Understanding God as a loving parent not only requires a reframing of our perception of God but also invites us to see each other and ourselves as beloved children

LIE 3 The Devil is God's Counterpart This is the bad idea that the Bible presents a continuous consistent narrative about the devil It simply does not Moreover when we string together what we actually have disparate statements about satan made by different people from different places languages cultures and times we arrive at the strange notion that there is a good god who is responsible for the good things in our lives and a bad god satan who handles the bad stuff

LIE 4 I Am Supposed to Protect and Defend God and My Faith There are real tensions and conflicts around the globe today that are built on the notion that as people of faith one of our jobs is to defend our faith or our God Rather than settling for a god who needs our protection we can follow the powerfully divine thread of moving beyond the tribe that is found throughout the Bible

LIE 5 There is One Right Way to Believe and One Right Way to Behave One of the root lies of fundamentalism in all faiths is the notion that true faith is defined by believing the right things and acting the right way Isn't it more likely that we are all part of a diverse creation that flows from a God that cannot be contained by any one belief or behavior

LIE 6 Faith is a Private Matter Much like whom we voted for in the last election or how much money we make people have wrongfully accepted the idea that faith is a private matter and not to be shared with others The spiritual life has always been a communal life We require others to undertake our journey and others need us too

LIE 7 Real Faith is Blind Belief The idea that true faith has no doubts or questions creates a powerless and impotent faith that discourages critical thinking and fosters the ridiculous assumption that science and faith are unrelated Real faith actually requires doubt criticism and exploration in order to change us let alone change the world While the loud voices at the margins adamantly declare faith either completely irrelevant or capable of being contained in one narrow ideology most people get lost in the mix feeling no certainty or comfort in either direction Faith Lies deconstructs the terrible notion that faithlessness and fundamentalism are our only options      Genesis, the Book of Beginnings Jonathan Sacks, 2009 A Weekly

God counted him as righteous because of his faith. He was even called the friend of God. James 2:23. Abraham is the only character in the Bible to be described as the friend of God. This comprehensive study by John Lennox explores why Abraham is unquestionably one of the most outstanding and influential figures in world history. He had no political or military achievements and he left no literary remains yet today billions of people more than half of the world's population claim him as their spiritual father. Throughout the Bible Abraham is seen as a pivotal figure in God's plan of salvation. In this richly detailed account of his life and times John Lennox helps us to see through mists of the past to the real flesh and blood man with all his strengths and weaknesses to better appreciate all that Abraham stands for as a model of faith today.
